St Marys Cathedral 1858 1958:

St. Mary's Cathedral, 1858-1958. By John H. Davis. A History of St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Memphis, which Became the Cathedral of the Diocese of Tennessee in 1871. [With Plates.]. Cathedral of St. Mary (MEMPHIS, Tennessee), John Henry DAVIS (Deacon at St. Mary's Cathedral, Memphis, Tennessee.), 1958 St. Mary's Cathedral John Henry Davis, 1964

St. Mary's Cathedral, 1858-1958 John H. Davis, 1958 No Depression in Heaven Alison Collis Greene, 2015-11-11 In No Depression in Heaven Alison Collis Greene demonstrates how the Great Depression and New Deal transformed the relationship between church and state Grounded in Memphis and the Delta this book traces the collapse of voluntarism the link between southern religion and the New Deal and the gradual alienation of conservative Christianity from the state At the start of the Great Depression churches and voluntary societies provided the only significant source of aid for those in need in the South Limited in scope divided by race and designed to control the needy as much as to support them religious aid collapsed under the burden of need in the early 1930s Hungry homeless and out of work Americans found that they had nowhere to turn at the most desolate moment of their lives Religious leaders joined a chorus of pleas for federal intervention in the crisis and a permanent social safety net They celebrated the New Deal as a religious triumph Yet some complained that Franklin Roosevelt cut the churches out of his programs and lamented their lost moral authority Still others found new opportunities within the New Deal By the late 1930s the pattern was set for decades of religious and political realignment More than a study of religion and politics No Depression in Heaven uncovers the stories of men and women who endured the Depression and sought in their religious worlds the spiritual resources to endure material deprivation Its characters are rich and poor black and white mobile sharecroppers and wealthy reformers enamored of the federal government and appalled by it Woven into this story of political and social transformation are stories of southern men and women who faced the greatest economic disaster of the twentieth century and tried to build a better world than the one they inhabited Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1959 Includes Part 1 Number 1 Books and Pamphlets Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals January June The Papers of Jefferson Davis Jefferson Davis, 2012-03-12 Volume 13 of The Papers of Jefferson Davis follows the former president of the Confederacy as he becomes head of the Carolina Life Insurance Company of Memphis and attempts to gain a financial foothold for his newly reunited family Having lost everything in the Civil War and spent two years immediately afterwards in federal prison Davis faced a mounting array of financial woes health problems and family illnesses and tragedies in the 1870s Despite setbacks during this decade Davis also began a quest to rehabilitate his image and protect his historical legacy Although his position with the insurance company provided temporary financial stability Davis resigned after the Panic of 1873 forced the sale of the company and its new owners canceled payments to Carolina policyholders He left for England the following year in search of employment and to recuperate from ongoing illnesses In 1876 Davis became president of the London based Mississippi Valley Society and relocated to New Orleans to run the company Throughout the 1870s Davis waged an expensive and seemingly endless legal battle to regain his prewar Mississippi plantation Brierfield He also began working on his memoirs at Beauvoir the Gulf Coast estate of a family friend Though disfranchised Davis addressed the subject of politics with more frequency during this decade criticizing the Reconstruction policies of the federal government while defending the South and the former Confederacy The volume ends with Davis s inheritance of Beauvoir which was his last home The editors have drawn from over one hundred manuscript repositories and private collections in addition to numerous published sources in compiling Volume 13 The Living Church ,1956 Elite Women and the Reform Impulse in Memphis, 1875-1915 Marsha Wedell,1991 The
