St Petersburg Nights:

St. Petersburg Bradley Woodworth, Constance Richards, Harold Bloom, 2005 Often called the Venice of the north St Petersburg has remained the crown jewel of the Russian artistic scene Writers covered include Fyodor Dostoevsky Nikolai Gogol and Aleksandr Pushkin St. Petersburg Nights William Cambell Douglass, 1995 French Ghosts, Russian Nights, and American Outlaws: Souvenirs of a Professional Vagabond Susan Spano, 2014-04-10 Susan Spano America's original Frugal Traveler explores some of the most romantic most exotic and wildest corners of the world in this captivating collection of her best loved pieces French Ghosts Russian Nights and American Outlaws Souvenirs of a Professional Vagabond takes the reader on magical trips when everything conspired to make a place unforgettable like a temple in Java at sunrise or an ice hotel in the Arctic Circle at sunset In some of the stories Susan finds the kind of enlightenment that only travel can provide by following in the footsteps of luminaries such as Federico Fellini Julia Child and Chairman Mao Other stories are about travel itself how it became Susan's passion and calling how it fed her incurably restless spirit how it inspired her philosophy of travel and life Go forth and find meaning Take a condemned cable car over the Yangtze River or a shared taxi over the Andes with a leaking gas tank and chain smoking driver Eat oysters and drink martinis wherever you can And as often as possible come home with a tan The White Nights of St Petersburg Geoffrey Trease, 1987 Soviet Life, 1967-07 White Nights and Dark Days: a Conversation with St. Petersburg, Russia Brian Kean, 2019-12-29 Russia is a hot topic these days Did they or didn't interfere in our elections in 2016 I won't answer that in my book but what I will do is give the reader the tools even the skills to make that decision for themselves I have been living and working in Russia since 1994 This book is like a crash course on Russia and what makes Russia do what Russia does The story does not unfold in a strict flow of time it is my life and my thoughts and they appear here as they were needed to help me to better understand my Russian journey to answer the questions what is Russia and why am I here After graduating from high school in 1985 I learned Russian at the Defense Language Institute in Monterey California and became a Russian linguist In 1990 as a 22 year old student at Rutgers University I was rambunctious and determined to change the world Instead I ended up in Leningrad the Northern Capital of the Soviet Union It was love at first sight Shortly after the failed coup in Moscow in August 1991 I returned and began my life in a Soviet Russian context I left again for graduate school at The School of International and Public Affairs at Columbia University With a Master's in my hands I was filled with the best intentions returning to help the struggling country survive the very difficult period of transition Grants from the World Bank Echoing Green and other funds fueled my vision and sure my two cents might have helped a bit often it seems though that Russia was more helpful in my own survival Having learned to think feel live and express myself in a post Soviet world that was at times harsh and unforgiving my 29 years in Russia have never been ones void of adventure Despite having built major companies and leading brands in the post Soviet space I never set out to make lots of money like so many before and after me My journey has been a love affair with a city that lured me to it since I was as young as ten Those whispers of history called and called Today I am 53 years old and each day surviving Russia has been as unique as that first overcast evening at the Finnish border on June 15 1990 There always seems to be a backdrop for everything in the country that just somehow makes you stop take notice and say Whoa cool I have survived three divorces the death of both parents grandmothers the death of a brother and even the loss of a prematurely born child I had a caf called The Brooklyn Bridge practically stolen from me by the mafia and my own employees and yet here I am still trying to make the city a bit better a bit more livable My story is not a political one however but one about normal Russians who have crossed my path over the past 29 years This story also does not delve into my professional accomplishments of the past 15 years since 2005 despite the amazing level some of them have risen to One thing that was of particular significance for me professionally however was the creation of Russia House in Davos during the World Economic Forum s Annual Meeting 2016 2018 Russia was officially avoiding Davos and I kept the country present on this world stage by launching my version of Russia White Nights and Dark Days has helped me answer the question so many Americans have asked since I first set out for Russia in 1994 what the hell are you doing in Russia I have asked myself this same question countless times it seems that I might have actually stumbled an answer If you like to explore other cultures then this book is for you If you want to learn how to succeed professionally in a foreign culture give this a read If you want to take a peak into a journey through a place and a time that few have written about then White Nights and Dark Days A Conversation with St Petersburg Russia is for you This is a book about survival about never giving up It is a book about love

Film Nation James R Russo, 2021-08-22 Notable writers on literature and culture who occasionally penned opinion pieces on the movies prior to World War II include Clifton Fadiman Mark Van Doren Lincoln Kirstein Edmund Wilson Louise Bogan and Paul Goodman All of these critics wrote seriously about things other than the movies Indeed the early decades of film criticism drew many moonlighters who tried their hand at it for a few years then moved on to their preferred metier And such was the case with William Troy 1903 1961 Troy a distinguished literary critic whose posthumous Selected Essays won a National

Book Award in 1968 was also a much loved professor at Bennington College the New School and New York University Troy was the film critic of The Nation from 1933 to 1935 To that post he brought an educated almost professional tone which he sometimes used for comic effect He approached each piece of film criticism as an occasion for some larger essayistic rumination Indeed his feeling for the carpentry of the short review is superb as the reader will detect in his pieces on such important films as Bu uel s L age d Or Lang s M Duvivier s Poil de Carotte Eisenstein s Que Viva M xico Dreyer s The Passion of Joan of Arc Cocteau s Blood of a Poet Pudovkin s Mother Flaherty s Man of Aran Renoir s Madame Bovary and Ford s The Informer William Troy was thus one of Americas first full time professional film critics if not the best of the lot He deserves some of the attention heretofore reserved for another important early critic James Agee who himself began writing movie reviews for The Nation in 1942 Published in conjunction with The Bookman William Troy on Literature and Criticism 1927 1950 ISBN 978 1 78976 172 6 Film Nation is essential reading for cinephiles Inclusion of a substantive index makes the work highly attractive for classroom adoption in the field of cinema studies
