History of Wills, Testators and Their Families in Late Medieval Krakow Jakub Wysmułek, 2021-06-22 This volume offers the first comprehensive analysis of wills in late medieval Krakow It presents the origins of testamentary acts in the Kingdom of Poland and its centre Krakow and their subsequent transformation from so called canonical wills to communal wills Wysmułek discusses the socio cultural role of wills and sets them in their contemporary legal social and economic context In doing so he uncovers their influence on property ownership and family relations in the city as well as on the religious practices of the burghers Ultimately this work seeks to change the perception of wills by treating the testamentary act itself as an important agent of historical social change a tool of power

Common Culture and the Ideology of Difference in Medieval and Contemporary Poland Teresa Pac, 2022-02-10 Teresa Pac provides a much needed contribution to the discussion on shared culture as foundational to societal survival Through the examination of common culture as a process in medieval Krakow Poznan and Lublin Pac challenges the ideology of difference institutional religious ethnic and nationalistic Similarly Pac maintains twenty first century Polish leaders utilize anachronistic approaches in the invention of Polish Catholic identity to counteract the country's increasing ethnic and religious diversity As in the medieval period contemporary Polish political and social elites subscribe to the European Union's ideology of difference legitimized by a European Christian heritage and its intended basis for discrimination against non Christians and non white individuals under the auspices of democratic values and minority rights among which Muslims are a significant target
