The Grafters Handbook, 6th Edition R.J. Garner, 2013-03-04 R.J. Garner's The Grafters Handbook is the classic reference book and revered encyclopedia and the only one of its kind on plant propagation by grafting and has been favored by orchardists and gardeners since its first publication in 1947. Now revised and updated for a new generation by respected horticulturist Steve Bradley, the all time classic is back and better than ever. Everything the dedicated amateur student and professional horticulturalist wants to know about grafting is here clearly written in a concise and straightforward style, the distillation of a lifetime's careful study and research. Chapters include information on compatibility and cambial contact, rootstocks and their propagation tools and accessories, methods of grafting and grafting established trees.

Introduction to Theatrical Design and Production Judy Ryerson, 2020-08-03 The creation of exciting visual stories blooms from a successful navigation of the collaborative artistic journey. This new text guides beginning directors, designers and performers through the many interwoven relationships and communication styles used during this journey and details the context, vision, parameters, materials, aesthetics, documentation and facilitation of the design and production process. Drawing from over thirty years as a theatre educator and costume designer, Ryerson uses examples from actual productions to provide valuable insight into creating visually symbolic storytelling. Specific areas covered include the historical development of performance, navigating the relationship between artistic and business factions, job descriptions and hierarchies, design elements and principles, set components and construction, the design and production of costumes, lighting and sound, special effects and how everything comes together. Including 16 pages of full color photos, this universal and practical approach benefits all members of this unique art form.

Contemporary Performance Lighting Katherine Graham, Scott Palmer, Kelli Zzulka, 2023-01-26 This is the first major collection of critical responses to performance lighting and includes contributions from award winning lighting designers researchers and artists Showcasing recent examples of work with case studies of lighting practices in Britain Europe the US and China combined with theoretical and analytical approaches to practice this will enrich your understanding of the role and potential of light in performance and related creative practices This volume explores three core themes and provides a framework for thinking through the role of light in performance

- 1 Experience considers both the audience's experience of light and the ways in which light influences the experience of performers
- 2 Creativity examines both the creative performative capacities of light in performance as well as the creative practices of lighting designers
- 3 Meaning offers an expanded view of performance aesthetics by examining the capacity of light to influence and generate meaning within performance

The case studies are drawn from a wide array of lighting practice including Jennifer Tipton on the role of light as a structural language in performance Jesper Kongshaug on the lighting of Copenhagen's Tivoli Gardens Lucy Carter on her work in installation and dance Psyche Chui on the productive fusion of Western lighting techniques with contemporary Chinese opera Katharine Williams on the role of light in feminist political theatre made by RashDash and Paule Constable on storytelling with light in a range of productions including War Horse The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night Time and Angels in America
