Handley,2024-07-22 Literature and Ecotheology From Chaos to Cosmos challenges us in a time of climate crisis to find more common ground between the dual projects of ecocriticism and ecotheology This book argues that in our postsecular age literature has become an important repository of theological wisdom that can like formal work in ecotheology provide the moral grounds for environmental care However for any cosmological understanding to be adequate to the challenges before us it must be responsive to the often painful contingencies and uncertainties that inhere in the cosmos something that both ecocriticism and ecotheology have often neglected After a treatment of the ecocritical and ecotheological questions that pertain to the religious secular divide the study then turns to four contemporary American writers Annie Dillard Cormac McCarthy Marilynne Robinson and David James Duncan as examples Each uses the contingency of literary form and its promise of wholeness in order to imagine reasons for hope in light of the unpredictability and untold human and more than human suffering that lie at the heart of nature The book will be of interest to students scholars and researchers interested in ecotheology religious studies environmental literature the environmental humanities and environmental studies more broadly It offers a needed paradigm shift in how Western societies have tended to misuse both secularity and religion      Atlantis
