Site Matters Erin Donnelly, Lower Manhattan Cultural Council, 2004 Edited by Moukhtar Kocache and Erin Shirreff Essays by Olu Oguibe Anthony Vidler and Erin Donnelly Introduction by Liz Thompson Memorials to Shattered Myths Harriet Senie, 2016 Memorials to the Vietnam War veterans Oklahoma City bombing Columbine school shooting and 9 11 terrorist attacks commemorate events that shattered myths of national identity Conflating memorials with cemeteries they celebrate victims as if they were heroes This new paradigm prompts an endless loop of mourning camouflaging history in a triumphal narrative Aereality William Fox, 2009-05-01 William Fox's writing for the last several years has been focused on how we construct aerial views either physically by flying or in our imaginations In Aereality he flies over earthworks in Nevada and Utah soars through the world's largest open pit mine and surveys Los Angeles circumnavigating large swaths of true American urban sprawl On the East Coast he examines the elevated art of the Hudson River Valley and New York City And finally in Australia Fox examines the history and current practice of both Euro Australian and Aboriginal aerial views and searches for the cognitive roots of our aerial imagination Accompanying Fox throughout his travels is a rolling cast of enlightened fliers geographers museum curators landscape photographers anthropologists and artists He traverses the sky in prop planes helicopters and hot air balloons all with the ultimate goal of knowing and experiencing the earth from the air

Flowers Cracking Concrete Rosemary Candelario, 2016-07-05 Winner of the Oscar G Brockett Book Prize for Dance Research 2018 Flowers Cracking Concrete is the first in depth study of the forty year career of Eiko Koma two artists from Japan who have lived and worked in New York City since the mid 1970s establishing themselves as innovative and influential modern and postmodern dancers They continue to choreograph perform and give workshops across the United States and around the world Rosemary Candelario argues that what is remarkable about Eiko Koma's dances is not what they signify but rather what they do in the world Each chapter of the book is a close reading of a specific dance that reveals a choreographic theme or concern Drawing on interviews live performance videos and reviews Candelario demonstrates how ideas have kinesthetically and choreographically cycled through Eiko Koma's body of work creating dances deeply engaged with the wider world through an active process of mourning transforming and connecting Hardcover is un jacketed The Andy Warhol Foundation for the Visual Arts 20-year Report, 1987-2007: Grants and exhibitions Andy Warhol Foundation for the Visual Arts, 2007 John Pilson: Interregna John Pilson, 2006 This book of photographs documents a pre 9 11 moment the officescape of a 24 7 investment bank at the height of the dot com bubble where John Pilson worked as a computer graphics operator on the graveyard shift Using the opportunities provided by the dead time of late night and early morning he began to explore this space using still and video photography The expected elements are all present cubicles fluorescent light smeared gray carpet beige boxes The landscape of New York's financial district seen through windows provides the occasional background A clue to Pilson's discoveries here is provided by the title Interregna between the kings or between the reigns meaning a period where authority and structure is suspended While the title is literally true referring to down time when there is no work to be done it points up the photographs other agenda The formal care and clean lines of the images begin to suggest more ambiguity fear doubt the things the office space is meant to exclude As the series goes on control and meaning sink into a lunar murk In the daylight buildings outside dissolve in mist at night in one of the series most impressive images the photographer himself dissolves his outline hovering in the dark floating among ranks of office lights This body of work provides a troubling record of our inability to understand and therefore control the effects of technology and work on our lives BOOK JACKET In Principio... la Parola si fece carne / In the Beginning... the Word became flesh
