Sociology Of Labour Markets Efficiency Equity Security:

The Sociology of Labour Markets Axel Van den Berg, 1997-01-01 The Cult of Efficiency Janice Gross Stein, 2002 This thought provoking discourse on the unquestioned pursuit of efficiency reveals how the discussion of efficiency in the delivery of public goods such as education and health care has risen to prominence in postindustrial society Stein's provocative argument reminiscent of the thinking of Lewis Mumford demonstrates that efficiency can too often be a cloak for political agendas and that pressure for efficiency can actually be a detrimental rather than a positive force Citizens in public schools community clinics and hospitals are shown engaging directly with such agendas redrawing the face of the state as they impose new ways of delivering public goods Stein demonstrates how they are calling not only for efficiency but for accountability and choice as they confront the dilemmas of democratic processes in a global age Culture of Prejudice Judith C. Blackwell, Murray E. G. Smith, John S. Sorenson, 2008-09-01 The principal theme of the book is that social science is at its best and most exciting when it confronts and refutes cultures of prejudice intricate systems of beliefs and attitudes that sustain many forms of social oppression and that are themselves sustained by ignorance and fear of the unknown and the unfamiliar Families, Labour and Love Maureen Baker, 2001 Annotation We think of family life as very personal but in fact it is shaped by influences well beyond our control Families Labour and Love identifies the ways in which family and personal life in three settler societies Australia New Zealand and Canada have been shaped by colonization immigration globalization demographic changes law and policy Baker shows that these three countries each a former colony developed similar family trends and similar family policies The family practices of indigenous people were largely overlooked as were those of recent immigrant groups Strongly gendered patterns of paid and unpaid work played a major role in family life Nevertheless local conditions also produced significant differences in family experiences among the three countries Containing numerous examples comparative data and textual sources Families Labour and Love provides a wide ranging analysis of the family that will appeal to students researchers and policy makers BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Restructuring Family Policies Maureen Baker, 2006-01-01 Recent years have seen significant changes in the social policies of many liberal welfare states this is especially true of social programs for families with children Increasingly governments are making family policy trade offs reducing support for some families but improving it for others Why are such trade offs occurring and how do governments differ in their approach to family social policy This study addresses these questions by examining the political demographic and socio economic factors influencing the restructuring of family related programs in OECD countries Adopting a feminist political economy approach Maureen Baker shows that while some governments encourage their citizens to see children as future resources and promote strong support for reproductive health programs child welfare services women's refuges subsidized childcare and pay equity others make these claims while simultaneously reducing family incomes through the deregulation of labour markets and restrictions on income support Ultimately Baker demonstrates that nation states with the best outcomes for families offer a variety of social supports which are increasingly important as global markets reduce economic security for some families while improving the financial situation of others This study also explores strategies employed by states to incorporate or resist international pressures and the reasons why some states tenaciously defend their family policy traditions while others restructure according to international guidelines Drawing from nation based research cross national studies and international data bases Restructuring Family Policies successfully integrates mainstream academic debates about restructuring welfare states with feminist research findings and current policy concerns International Labour

Documentation International Labour Office. Central Library and Documentation Branch, International Labour Organization. Central Library and Documentation Branch, 1999 Social Inequality in Canada James E. Curtis, Edward G. Grabb, L. Neil Guppy, 1999

The purpose of the book is to introduce students to issues of social inequality in Canada It includes a collection of 30 articles which address all of the major aspects of social inequality Topics include social inequality social class social stratification social issues and Canadian Society The book begins from the premise that social inequality entails two broad components objective or structural conditions of social inequality and ideologies that help support these differences

International Labour Review, 1921 Social Inequality in Canada James Curtis, Edward G. Grabb, Neil Guppy, 2004

Appropriate for courses in social inequality or social stratification Courses are usually found in sociology departments but sometimes also in history philosophy political science and economics departments Social Inequality in Canada Patterns Problems and Policies introduces students to the major aspects or dimensions of social inequality in Canada This collection of thirty one articles addresses topics that are central to a range of courses including Social Inequality Social Class Social Stratification Social Issues and Canadian Society The new edition has been revised to reflect important new research and changes in the nature of social inequality Women, Work, and Social Rights Cecilia Benoit, 2000

The text is suitable for upper level sociology courses of work and gender as well as political science and women's studies courses Viewing gender relations in a historical context the book examines the importance of women's roles in both paid and unpaid work with a particular focus on the Canadian experience and its relation to other societies Society, 1996 Poverty, Social Assistance, and the Employability of Mothers Maureen Baker, David John Tippin, 1999 While these countries are sometimes classified as liberal welfare states this book demonstrates that they vary considerably in terms of benefit development expectations concerning maternal employment and restructuring processes BOOK JACKET The Sociology of Education in Canada Terry Wotherspoon, 2009 This book offers a well rounded introduction to the sociological understanding of education analyzing key debates and issues with references to critical research and theories of education In this concise critical introduction Dr Terry Wotherspoon covers all aspects of the sociology of education in Canada including issues such as the sociology of teaching gender and race feminism and globalization The Sociology of Education in Canada is an appropriate core text for one semester third year sociology courses given its coverage of the history of the education system in Canada through to present day focus on theory and presentation of research recent data and perspectives Social Inequality in Canada Edward G. Grabb, Neil Guppy, 2008 Social Inequality in Canada is a collection of twenty eight articles that cover all of the major aspects of social inequality The text covers two broad components objective or structural conditions of social inequality power poverty and wealth occupations and educational attainment in particular and ideologies that help support these differences Readers who would prefer a more egalitarian society than currently exists in Canada will find reasons for both optimism and pessimism in the research presented here The studies in this collection demonstrate that some types of inequality are generally becoming more marked over time while others have considerably diminished and still more that show little change in recent decades Work, Industry, and Canadian Society Harvey Krahn, Graham S. Lowe, 1998

Choices and Constraints in Family Life Maureen Baker, 2007 Using an interdisciplinary approach that draws on the latest research in sociology anthropology psychology and cultural studies this text expertly traces how families have changed over time and reveals how both personal preferences and social circumstances influence family relationships and society's shared perception of the family Publisher's description A Purposive Approach to Labour Law Guy Davidov, 2016-05-05 The mismatch between goals and means is a major cause of crisis in labour law The regulations that we use the legal instruments and techniques are no longer in sync with the goals they are supposed to advance This mismatch leads to a problem of coverage where many workers who need the protection of labour law are not covered by it as well as a problem of obsolescence as labour laws are not sufficiently updated in light of dramatic changes in the labour market Adopting a purposive approach to interpretation and legislative reform this volume addresses this crisis of mismatch It first articulates the goals of labour law both general and specific through an in depth normative discussion and a consideration of critiques The book then proceeds to reconsider our means asking what we need to change or improve in the laws themselves in order to better advance the goals Some of the proposed solutions are at the level of judicial interpretation others at the legislative level The book offers several examples of the way a purposive analysis should be performed in concrete cases It also recommends institutional structures that are suited to ongoing adaptation of the law to ensure that our goals are advanced even when circumstances frequently change Finally in response to the crisis of enforcement in this field which frustrates the achievement of labour law's goals several proposals to improve compliance and enforcement are considered Flexibility and employment security in Europe R. J. A. Muffels, 2014-05-14 This title presents carefully selected articles that are at the ultimate forefront of professional studies on transitional labour markets and flexicurity Globalization and Society Raymond Breton, Jeffrey G. Reitz, 2003-12-30 Globalization has been defined as a process in which the population of the world is increasingly bonded into a single society Although none of the contributors to this collection denies the thrust toward convergence that is implicit in globalizing processes each contributor also concludes that globalization encourages differentiation Integration in the global system is not a passive process In different nations people analyze and interpret what is happening and respond by developing policies forming new institutions and changing existing ones They adopt broad cultural models in order to function effectively in the larger system and they also draw upon their particular traditions values institutions and resources to define a place that will be to their advantage economically politically and socio culturally As the studies presented in this book show integration in the world system may benefit a given society or may harm it it may entail changes to a society s culture but does not obliterate a society s distinctive characteristics Transgressing Borders Suzan Ilcan,Lynne Phillips,1998-10-23 Comprises 13 papers which explore the concept of boundaries in relation to the family gender and culture Questions the value or legitimacy of boundaries and shows how by transgressing these borders the conventional codes that govern social relations are challenged Comprises four sections covering the role of the state in shaping family forms conceptions of women s space and time in household organization the role of colonialism in defining household and kin relations and the impact of work and changing economies on the shaping of households
