Duct Tape Selling John Jantsch, 2014-05-15 Many of the areas that salespeople struggle with these days have long been the domain of marketers according to bestselling author John Jantsch The traditional business model dictates that marketers own the message while sellers own the relationships But now Jantsch flips the usual sales approach on its head It's no longer enough to view a salesperson's job as closing Today's superstars must attract teach convert serve and measure while developing a personal brand that stands for trust and expertise In Duct Tape Selling Jantsch shows how to tackle a changing sales environment whether you're an individual or charged with leading a sales team You will learn to think like a marketer as you Create an expert platform Become an authority in your field Mine networks to create critical relationships within your company and among your clients Build and utilize your Sales Hourglass Finish the sale and stay connected Make referrals an automatic part of your process As Jantsch writes Most people already know that the days of knocking on doors and hard selling are over But as I travel around the world speaking to groups of business owners marketers and sales professionals the number one question I'm asked is What do we do now I've written this book specifically to answer that question At the heart of it marketing and sales have become activities that no longer simply support each other so much as feed off of each other's activity Sales professionals must think and act like marketers in order to completely reframe their role in the mind of the customer

Mind Control 101 - How to Influence the Thoughts and Actions of Others Without Them Knowing Or Caring J. K. Ellis, Dantalion Jones, 2011-09-12 Why would someone write a book on Mind Control Because as much as we try to elevate ourselves above being human animals we are in fact animals We are subject to the wants and desires of any being with a genome and vertebrae To rise above that is an admirable and a task we should take on as a worthy spiritual endeavor But to deny that we are truly animals is to lie to ourselves We must deal with people who may not be so enlightened advanced as we are They may desire what we have and be secretly filled with envy and contempt The worst event is to have these suspicions fulfilled and then be pulled down into the politics of man Do we deny that it s happening and hope others will be touched by our honesty and good will enough to change Or do we drop our highest spiritual ideals and play their game I would like to suggest a radically different strategy Take the game of manipulation and Mind Control and make it a part of your spirituality
