Soho Leopard:

The Soho Leopard Ruth Padel, 2011-06-08 Beautiful disturbing and a pleasure to read Ruth Padel's new poems are her most ambitious yet adding animal legend and zoological science to her glitteringly imaginative canvas With her gift for bringing together experiences and tones of voice that normally stay far apart she sweeps us from Dulwich Pizza Hut to ancient Siberia King's Cross to nineteenth century Burma We meet Socrates urban foxes Louisiana alligators and the endangered Amur leopard in poems resonating with sensuous delight in nature but also with history and loss Finally a Chinese painter searches for tigers in a forest doomed to the sawmill while the minister who sold it scoffs an aphrodisiac bowl of tiger penis soup Hallucinatory and lyrical passionately musical seething with life The Soho Leopard explores our human need for wildness and also for stories wherever we find them A wonderfully ferocious new collection from one of our most exciting poets

Beethoven Variations Ruth Padel, 2021-02-02 Padel's imagery and imagination took me deeper into Beethoven than many biographies I've read Anthony Tommasini The New York Times A fascinating poetic journey into the mind and heart of a musical genius from the author of the celebrated Darwin A Life in Poems Ruth Padel's new sequence of poems in four movements is a personal voyage through the life and legend of one of the world's greatest composers She uncovers the man behind the music charting his private thoughts and feelings through letters diaries sketchbooks and the conversation books he used as his hearing declined She gives us Beethoven as a battered four year old weeping at the clavier the young virtuoso pianist agonized by his encroaching deafness the passionate heartbroken lover the clumsy eccentric making coffee with exactly sixty beans Padel s quest takes her into the heart of Europe and back to her own musical childhood Her great grandfather who studied in Leipzig with a pupil of Beethoven s became a concert pianist before migrating to Britain her parents met making music and Padel grew up playing the viola Beethoven s instrument as a child Her book is a poet and string player s intimate connection across the centuries with an artist who though increasingly isolated ended even his most harrowing works on a note of hope     The Mara Crossing Ruth Padel,2012-01-05 First published as The Mara Crossing now with new and updated material Home is where you start from but where is a swallow s real home And what does native mean if the English oak is an immigrant from Spain In ninety richly varied poems and illuminating prose interludes Ruth Padel weaves science myth wild nature and human history to conjure a world created and sustained by migration We re all from somewhere else she begins tracing the millennia old journeys of cells trees birds and beasts Geese battle raging winds over Mount Everest lemurs skim precipices in Madagascar and wildebeest at the climax of their epic trek from Tanzania brave a river filled with the largest hungriest crocodiles in Africa Human migration has shaped civilisation but today is one of the greatest challenges the world faces In a series of incisive portraits Padel turns to the struggles of human displacement the Flight into Egypt John James Audubon emigrating to America feeding migrant birds en route migrant workers in Mumbai and refugees labouring over a drastically changing planet to show how the purpose of migration for both humans and animals is survival Poignant thought provoking and utterly compelling here is a magnificent tapestry of life on the move from the acclaimed author of Darwin A Life in Poems     On Migration Ruth Padel,2014-09-09 Life began with migration In a magnificent tapestry of life on the move Ruth Padel weaves poems and prose science and religion wild nature and human history to conjure a world created and sustained by migration We re all from somewhere else she begins Migration builds civilization but also causes displacement From the Holy Family s Flight into Egypt the Lost Colony on Roanoke and the famous photograph Migrant Mother Padel turns to John James Audubon s journey from Haiti and France heirlooms carried through Ellis Island Kennedy s society of immigrants and Casa del Migrante on the Mexican border But she reaches the human story through the millennia old journeys of cells in our bodies trees in the Ice Age Monarch butterflies travelling from Alaska to Mexico As warblers battle hurricanes over the Caribbean and wildebeest brave a river filled with the largest crocodiles in Africa she shows that the truest purpose of migration for both humans and animals is survival     Hyphen Cliff Yates, Anne Stevenson, Jean Sprackland, Joe Sheerin, Shenagh Pugh, Ruth Padel, Sean O'Brien, Sinéad Morrissey, Ian McMillan, Roddy Lumsden, Grevel Lindop, Joanne Limburg, John Latham, Sophie Hannah, Matthew Francis, David Constantine, Polly Clark, Helen Clare,Steven Blythe,2013-12-03 Too often the short story is regarded as merely a poor cousin of the novel a weekend break for novelists an assumption that demeans the short and neglects the fact that it has an anatomy all of its own This anthology is a one off experiment to show how much the short has in common with a very different literary form the poem Established and award winning poets from around Britain and the UK have been asked to interlope into the unknown territory of the short most of them for the first time and each bringing with them a new poetic perspective as well as an intuitive feel for the snapshot s hidden narratives We Are All From Somewhere Else Ruth Padel,2020-09-15 First published as The Mara Crossing now with new and updated material A prodigy a book of wonders Wonder pity and terror the searing section of voices in transit coercing compassion and beyond that empathy Independent Home is where you start from but where is a swallow s real home And what does native mean if the English oak is an immigrant from Spain In ninety richly varied poems and illuminating prose interludes Ruth Padel weaves science myth wild nature and human history to conjure a world created and sustained by migration from the millennia old journeys of cells trees birds and beasts to Geese battle raging winds over Mount Everest lemurs skim precipices in Madagascar and wildebeest at the climax of their epic trek from Tanzania braving a river filled with the largest crocodiles in Africa Human migration has shaped civilisation but today is one of the greatest challenges the world faces In a series of incisive portraits Padel turns to the struggles of human displacement the Flight into Egypt John James Audubon emigrating to America feeding migrant birds en route migrant workers in Mumbai and refugees labouring over a drastically changing planet to show how the purpose of migration for both humans and animals is survival

Darwin Ruth Padel,2011-11-23 This remarkable book brings us an intimate and moving interpretation of the life and work of Charles Darwin by Ruth Padel an acclaimed British poet and a direct descendant of the famous scientist Charles Darwin born in 1809 lost his mother at the age of eight repressed all memory of her and poured his passion into solitary walks newt collecting and shooting His five year voyage on H M S Beagle when he was in his twenties changed his life Afterward he began publishing his findings and working privately on groundbreaking theories about the development of animal species including human beings and he made a nervous proposal to his cousin Emma Padel s poems sparkle with nuance and feeling as she shows us the marriage that ensued and the rich creative atmosphere the Darwins provided for their ten children Charles and Emma were happy in each other but both were painfully aware of the gulf between her deep Christian faith and his increasing religious doubt The death of three of their children accentuated this gulf For Darwin death and extinction were nature s way of developing new species the survival of the fittest for Emma death was a prelude to the afterlife These marvelous poems enriched by helpful marginal notes and by Padel s ability to move among multiple viewpoints always keeping Darwin at the center bring to life the great scientist as well as the private man and tender father This is a biography in rare form with an unquantifiable depth of family intimacy and warmth Beyond the Lyric Fiona Sampson,2012-09-06 British poetry is enjoying a period of exceptional richness and variety This is exciting but it s also confusing and throws up the need for an enthusiastic guide that can explain and celebrate the many parallel poetry projects now underway Beyond the Lyric does just that This is a book of enthusiasms an intelligent and witty map of contemporary British poetry and a radical accessible guide to living British poets grouped for the first time according to the kind of poetry they write In a series of groundbreaking new classifications beginning with the bread and butter diction of the Plain Dealers and ending on the capacious generosity of the Exploded Lyric it examines the broad range of contemporary tendencies from the baroque swagger of the Dandies to the restrained elegance of the Oxford Elegists from the layered haunting verse of Mythopoesis to the inventive explorations of the New Formalists By probing the cultural context from which these groups emerge and shifting the critical focus back to the work itself Sampson s astute analysis illuminates and demystifies each of these terms and asks the big questions about what makes a poem The result is a celebration of poetry as a connected responsive and above all communitarian form Lively engaging and inviting this is the indispensable and authoritative guide for anyone who s ever wondered what s going on in British poetry today     The Annals of London John Richardson,2000 Year by year from 1065 to the present disasters innovations and everyday events are revealed to display the wide spectrum of London life The sweep of the book is vast and its details magnificent Richardson s informative text is supported by an extraordinary and eclectic collection of 200 historical illustrations 7 color maps     Tigers In Red Weather Ruth Padel,2009-05-26 Poet writer and descendant of Charles Darwin Ruth Padel set out to visit a tropical jungle and wildlife sanctuary in India and her visit turned into a remarkable two year journey through eleven countries in search of that most elusive and most beautiful animal the tiger Armed with her grandmother s opera glasses and Tunisian running shoes she set off across Asia to ask the question can the tiger be saved from extinction in the wild Tigers are an umbrella species they need everything in the forest to work in tandem they eat deer the deer need vegetation the vegetation has to be pollinated by birds mammals rodents and butterflies If you save the tiger you save everything else Today the 5 000 tigers that still survive in the wild live only in Asia and are scattered throughout 14 countries Padel says that while tigers will never become extinct they are too popular for that they may disappear from the wild There are as many tigers in cages in the US as there are surviving tigers in the wild As she travels she meets the defenders of the wild the heroic scientists forest guards and conservationists at the frontline fighting to save tigers and their forests from destruction in the places where poverty threatens to wipe out all wildlife She also examines her fascination both as a poet and as the great great granddaughter of Charles Darwin with nature wildness and survival and in the end becomes a knowledgeable advocate for the tiger The result is a beautiful blend of natural history travel literature and memoir and a searing intimate portrait of an animal we have loved and feared almost to extinction     A Dictionary of Writers and their Works Christopher Riches,Michael Cox,2015-01-29 Over 3 200 entries An essential guide to authors and their works that focuses on the general canon of British literature from the fifteenth century to the present There is also some coverage of non fiction such as biographies memoirs and science as well as inclusion of major American and Commonwealth writers This online exclusive new edition adds 60 000 new words including over 50 new
