Empires,

Systems and States Michael Cox, Timothy Dunne, Ken Booth, 2001 This volume brings together a collection of leading scholars to consider various dimensions of the turn to history in International Relations The scope of this volume is broad It includes conventional accounts of the development of the European states system but is not limited by it Other essays consider the non European experience a number of path breaking essays on how other cultures and continents have ordered their political communities in particular the question how and why a states system triumphed over other forms of political organisation The theme of the subtitle great transformations is pursued by each author The essays consider one of the biggest questions of our time namely how did we arrive at this historical and institutional expression of political community And what alternative future world orders exist The volume will be of interest to scholars of International Relations and History interested in great transformations in world politics The Cambridge History of Africa J. D. Fage,Roland Anthony Oliver,G. N. Sanderson,1975 Volume VI covers the period 1870 1905 when the European powers divided the continent into colonial territories Social Welfare in Muslim Societies in Africa Holger Weiss,2002 Captures the theoretical and actual dimension of social welfare in selected African Islamic countries Describes State involvement in the post colonial period the roles of pious foundations Sufi orders and NGOs Nigeria, Nationalism, and Writing History Toyin Falola,Saheed Aderinto,2010 The second half of the 20th century saw the publication of massive amounts of literature on Nigeria by Nigerian and non Nigerian historians This volume reflects on that literature focusing on those works by Nigerians in the context of the rise and the decline of African nationalist historiography Warfare in the Sokoto Caliphate Joseph P. Smaldone,2008-11-03 The successful jihad of 1804 in Hausaland perhaps the most important Islamic revolution in West African history with consequences still apparent in Nigeria today resulted in the establishment of the Sokoto Caliphate the largest and most enduring West African polity in the nineteenth century The book is a full length study of traditional Sudanic military history and an authoritative analysis of warfare in its most prominent Islamic state After a brief survey of the evolution of Sudanic warfare and military organisation before 1800 Dr Smaldone examines the historical development and sociological implications of the two important revolutions in military technology which occurred in the nineteenth century the adoption of cavalry during the jihad period and the introduction of firearms in the latter half of the century He argues that these two revolutions were causal factors in producing two structural transformations in the emirates of the Caliphate first from relatively egalitarian combatant communities to feudal systems and then to centralised bureaucratic state organisations

Displacement and the Politics of Violence in Nigeria Paul Lovejoy,Tokunbo Williams,2021-11-01 This volume examines the political stalemate that has engulfed Nigeria in the 1990s The annulment of the 1993 elections stopped the transition to civilian rule which had begun in 1987 In re establishing its rule the military relied increasingly on repressive measures As rival elites have struggled to control the economy the level of violence and general insecurity has increased Often contending forces are perceived in religious terms with the result that secular strife has become pronounced The military government has thereby been able to manipulate the complexities of religious class and ethnic factors for its own purposes with the result that increasing numbers of Nigerians have left the country Ransoming Prisoners in Precolonial Muslim Western Africa Jennifer Lofkrantz,2023 Introduction Chapter One Islamic Discourse on Slavery and Ransoming before 1800 Chapter Two The Policy and Practice of Ransoming in the Maghrib Chapter Three Jihad the Sokoto Caliphate and Ransoming Chapter Four The Jihad of Umar Taal and its Ransoming Non Policies Chapter Five The Negotiation and Practice of Ransoming Captives Conclusion Historical Dictionary of Nigeria Toyin Falola, Ann Genova, Matthew M. The Palgrave Handbook of Global Slavery throughout History Damian A. Pargas, Juliane Schiel, 2023-06-14 This open access handbook takes a comparative and global approach to analyse the practice of slavery throughout history. To understand slavery, why it developed and how it functioned in various societies is to understand an important and widespread practice in world civilisations. With research traditionally being dominated by the Atlantic world, this collection aims to illuminate slavery that existed in not only the Americas but also ancient, medieval North and sub-Saharan African, Near Eastern and Asian societies. Connecting civilisations through migration, warfare, trade routes and economic expansion, the practice of slavery integrated countries and regions through power based relationships whilst simultaneously dividing societies by class, race, ethnicity and cultural group. Uncovering slavery as a globalising phenomenon, the authors highlight the slave trading routes that crisscrossed Africa, helped integrate the Mediterranean world, connected Indian Ocean societies and fused the Atlantic world. Split into five parts, the handbook portrays the evolution of slavery from antiquity to the contemporary era and encourages readers to realise similarities and differences between various manifestations of slavery throughout history. Providing a truly global coverage of slavery and including thematic injections within each chronological part, this handbook is a comprehensive and transnational resource for all researchers interested in slavery, the history of labour and anthropology.

West African Warfare in Bahia and Cuba Manuel Barcia, 2014-09-25 West African Warfare in Bahia and Cuba seeks to explain how a series of historical events that occurred in West Africa from the mid 1790s, including Afonja's rebellion, the Owu wars, the Fulani led jihad and the migrations to Egbaland, had an impact upon life in cities and plantations in western Cuba and Bahia. Manuel Barcia examines the extent to which a series of African led plots and armed movements that took place in western Cuba and Bahia between 1807 and 1844 were the result or a continuation of events that had occurred in and around the Yoruba and

Hausa kingdoms in the same period Why did these two geographical areas serve as the theatre for the uprising of the Nagos the Lucumis and other West African men and women The answer Barcia argues relates to the fact that plantation economies supported by unusually large numbers of African born slaves from the same or close geographical and ethnic heritage transformed the rural and urban landscape in western Cuba and Bahia To understand why these two areas followed such similar social patterns it is essential to look across the Atlantic it is not enough to repeat the significance of the African background of Bahian and Cuban slaves By establishing connections between people and events with a special emphasis on their warfare experiences Barcia presents a coherent narrative which spans more than three decades and opens a wealth of archival research for future study
