Soldiers Bride:

Entangling Alliances Susan Zeiger, 2010-03-01 Throughout the twentieth century American male soldiers returned home from wars with foreign born wives in tow often from allied but at times from enemy nations resulting in a new official category of immigrant the allied war bride These brides began to appear en masse after World War I peaked after World War II and persisted through the Korean and Vietnam Wars GIs also met and married former enemy women under conditions of postwar occupation although at times the US government banned such unions In this comprehensive complex history of war brides in 20th century American history Susan Zeiger uses relationships between American male soldiers and foreign women as a lens to view larger issues of sexuality race and gender in United States foreign relations Entangling Alliances draws on a rich array of sources to trace how war and postwar anxieties about power and national identity have long been projected onto war brides and how these anxieties translate into public policies particularly immigration The Rural New-Yorker

, 1919 Koreatowns Jinwon Kim, Soo Mee Kim, Stephen Cho Suh, 2020-06-30 This collection defines Koreatowns as spatial configurations that concentrate elements of Korea demographically economically politically and culturally The contributors provide exploratory accounts and critical evaluations of Koreatowns in different countries throughout the world Ranging from familiar settings such as Los Angeles and New York City to more unfamiliar locales such as Singapore Beijing Mexico U S Mexico borderlands and the American Midwest this collection not only examines the social characteristics and contours of these spaces but also the types of discourses and symbols that they exude Women, Families and the British Army, 1700-1880 Vol 2 Jennine Hurl-Eamon, Lynn MacKay, 2020-03-10 This series concentrates on women and the soldiers in the ranks whose lives they shared assembling a wide body of evidence of their romantic entanglements and domestic concerns The new military history of recent decades has demanded a broadening of the source base beyond elite accounts or those that concentrate solely on battlefield experiences Armies did not operate in isolation and men s family ties influenced the course of events in a variety of ways Campfollowing women and children occupied a liminal space in campaign life Those who travelled on the strength of the army received rations in return for providing services such as laundry and nursing but they could also be grouped with prostitutes and condemned as a burden by officers Parents wives and offspring left behind at home remained in soldiers thoughts despite an army culture aimed at replacing kin with regimental ties Soldiers families suffering both on the march and back in Britain attracted public attention at key points in this period as well This series provides for the first time in one place a wide body of texts relating to common soldiers personal lives the women with whom they became involved their children and the families who cared for them It brings hitherto unpublished material into print for the first time and resurrects accounts that have not been in wide circulation since the nineteenth century The collection combines the observations of officers government officials and others with memoirs and letters from men in the ranks and from the women themselves It draws extensively on press accounts especially in the nineteenth century It also demonstrates the value of using literary depictions alongside the letters diaries memoirs and war office papers that form the traditional source base of military historians This second volume covers the period during the French Revolutionary and Napoleonic War era Our Army ,1938 Women's America Linda K. Kerber,2016 Featuring a mix of primary source documents articles and illustrations Women s America Refocusing the Past has long been an invaluable resource Now in its eighth edition the book has been extensively revised and updated to cover recent developments in U S women s history Beyond the Shadow of Camptown Ji-Yeon Yuh,2004-04 Through moving oral histories Ji Yeon Yuh tells an important at times heartbreaking story of Korean military brides She takes us beyond the stereotypes and reveals their roles within their families communities and Korean immigration to the U S The Soldier's Bride Rachelle J. Christensen,2016-03-15 As WWII ration cards and battle scars become commonplace across America it seems to Evelyn that even love is rationed out When she finds a message from her late husband tucked inside a music box Jim s words have the power to change her life Don t die with me Words written out of love long lost but never forgotten Grief stricken Evelyn is unsure of how to honor his request but she finds the courage to keep on living Jim s note urges her to give the music box away to unlock the secret within and although it breaks her heart again Evelyn trades the music box for a cradle to hold her infant son Thus begins the decades long journey of the music box mending broken hearts reuniting lost loves and giving people the courage to heal themselves along the way This romance crosses battlefields and time as the music box touches the lives of two soldiers a broken father a crippled child a struggling farmer and a woman once called the soldier s bride The German Immigrant Kurt Schoenthier,2007 Asian/Pacific Islander American Women Shirley Hune,Gail M. Nomura,2003-08 A groundbreaking anthology devoted to Asian Pacific Islander American women and their experiences Asian Pacific Islander American Women is the first collection devoted to the historical study of A PI women s diverse experiences in America Covering a broad terrain from pre large scale Asian emigration and Hawaii in its pre Western contact period to the continental United States the Philippines and Guam at the end of the twentieth century the text views women as historical subjects actively negotiating complex hierarchies of power The volume presents new findings about a range of groups including recent immigrants to the U S and understudied communities Comprised of original new work it includes chapters on women who are Cambodian Chamorro Chinese Filipino Hmong Japanese Korean Native Hawaiian South Asian and Vietnamese Americans It addresses a wide range of women s experiences as immigrants military brides refugees American born lesbians workers mothers beauty contestants and community activists There are also pieces on historiography and methodology and bibliographic and video documentary resources This groundbreaking anthology is an important addition to the scholarship in Asian Pacific American studies ethnic studies American studies women s studies and U S history and is a valuable resource for scholars and students Contributors include Xiaolan Bao Sucheng Chan Catherine Ceniza Choy Vivian Loyola Dames Jennifer Gee Madhulika S Khandelwal Lili M Kim Nancy In Kyung Kim Erika Lee Shirley Jennifer Lim Valerie Matsumoto Sucheta Mazumdar Davianna
