Entering the New Theological Space John Reader, 2016-05-06 This book presents theological reflections on the changing nature of church mission and Christian identity within a theology of blurred encounter a physical social political and spiritual space where once solid hierarchies and patterns are giving way to more fluid and in many ways unsettling exchanges. The issues raised and dynamics explored apply to all socially produced space thus tending to blur that most fundamental of theological categories namely urban vs rural theology. Engaging in a sharper way with some of the helpful but inevitably broad brush conclusions raised by recent church based reports Mission Shaped Church Faithful Cities the authors examine some of the practical and theological implications of this research for the issue of effective management and therefore church leadership generally. Speaking to practitioners in the field of practical theology as well as those engaged in theological and ministerial training key voices encompass dimensions of power and conflict and identify some of the present and future opportunities and challenges to church faith based engagement and leadership arising from blurred encounters. Contributors practitioners and theorists cover a wide spectrum of interdisciplinary professional contexts and academic denominational interests. Contributors include John Atherton John Reader Helen Cameron Martyn Percy Malcolm Brown Karen Lord Clare McBeath and Margaret Goodall.

Sydney's One Special Evangelist Baden P. Stace, 2022-08-04

This landmark work is the first academic study of a figure who played a defining role in the Australian evangelical movement of the late twentieth century the inimitable preacher evangelist and churchman John C Chapman. The study situates Chapman's career within the secularizing Western cultures of the post 1960s a period bringing momentous changes to the social and religious fabric of Western society. At the same time global Evangelicalism was reviving bringing vitality to large swathes in the Global South and a re balancing in Western societies as conservative religious movements experienced growth and even renewal amidst wider secularizing trends. Against this backdrop the study explores the way in which across a wide array of domestic and international fora Chapman contended for the soteriological priority of the gospel in Christian life mission and thought. Accomplished via an absorbing blend of personal wit impassioned oratory innovative missiological strategy and striking theological perception the result was a stimulating history of public advocacy that sought a revival of confidence in Evangelicalism's message and a constantly reforming vision of Evangelicalism's method. Such a legacy marks Chapman as a central figure within the generation of postwar leaders whose work has given Australian Evangelicalism its contemporary shape and dynamism.

From 'Mission-Shaped' to 'Jesus-Shaped' Church Susan Beverley Cross, 2025-03-10

Hospitality is often invoked without question in Church of England discourse but the importance of the practice to contemporary mission has not been subject to detailed analysis. This book provides otherwise elusive in depth theological examination of the scope of Christian understandings of hospitality. From feasting in the Hebrew Scriptures and foot washing in the New Testament to online Communion during the COVID 19 pandemic hospitality is more than welcome or the evangelistic hospitality of the Alpha Course or Messy Church. So this book encompasses racism ageing poverty tragedy storytelling minds bodies and belonging as well as the implications of allying food to Christian formation. It shows that Christian hospitality has relevance not only to mission but also to ecclesiology eschatology disability theology and social and ecological justice.

Sydney Marcia Cameron, 2016-10-19 The Diocese of Sydney is admired hated loved and feared While often criticized as no longer Anglican it has at its heart an adherence to classic Anglicanism While to some it is a beacon in the darkness to others it is like a threatening bushfire It is very large very wealthy and very influential in other places Its opposition to ordaining women priests and in many parishes to women preaching mystifies and angers many Anglicans within and outside its boundaries What makes this diocese such a phenomenon The answer lies in its history in the men and women who shaped it in a particular view of the authority of the Bible and in the influence wielded by some powerful institutions that have prospered Its energy comes from the Scriptural mandate for mission to bring the outsider into the community of Christian people but not to leave it there To educate them in the knowledge of Christ in a variety of creative and imaginative ways This book also looks at what Sydney has done badly It may help readers to learn from its past achievements and its mistakes
