Faces of Aging Yoshiko Matsumoto, 2011-03-17 The indisputable fact of Japan s rapidly aging population has been known for some time But beyond statistics and implications for the future we do not know much about the actual aging process Senior citizens and their varied experiences have for the most part been obscured by stereotypes This fascinating new collection of research on the elderly works to put a human face on aging by considering multiple dimensions of the aging experience in Japan Faces of Aging foregrounds a spectrum of elder centered issues social activity caregiving generational bias suicide sexuality and communication with medical professionals to name a few from the perspective of those who are living them The volume s diverse contributors represent the fields of sociology anthropology medicine nursing gerontology psychology film studies gender studies communication and linguistics offering a diverse selection of qualitative studies of aging to researchers across the social sciences

Suicide in Asia Paul S.F. YIP, 2008-09-01 Over one million people worldwide commit suicide every year and more than 60% of suicide deaths occur in Asia However very little reliable information is available to permit a good understanding of the multifaceted and complex issues involved in suicide prevention in the region This book provides detailed analyses of suicide in eight Asian societies While each society has its own unique characteristics Asia as a whole is under rapid transition and transformation and the associated stress and depression are both closely linked to suicide Hopefully a better evidence based understanding of suicide will enable governments and non government organizations to establish effective and culturally sensitive suicide prevention strategies for the region
