Fighting Suicide Bombing Israel W. Charny, 2006-11-30 How does one effectively fight suicide bombers What threat do they hold for Western society How do people who love peace reconcile the need for war Noted genocide expert Israel W Charny addresses these questions in this highly personal description of suicide bombings and terror as the opening salvos of a Third World War Charny first seeks to understand what makes suicide bombers tick as well as the culture from which they emerge Taking this understanding of what he calls human evil he then proposes a hawkish campaign that ultimately emphasizes peace rather than irrational fear By deeming suicide bombing and terrorism as necessary subjects in the study of psychology Charny presents yet another weapon in the war against terrorism a war that he believes will only escalate without drastic action Ultimately he calls for a worldwide campaign for life led by religious and secular leaders across the globe He concludes the book with a vignette from Islamic culture that speaks nobly to furthering peace and life

Death by Domestic Violence Katherine van Wormer, Albert R. Roberts, 2008-11-30 Each year about 33 percent of all women and 3 percent of all men murdered in the United States are killed by a so called intimate a spouse partner or lover Nationwide murder by an intimate is the number one cause of death for pregnant women And murder by an intimate is not just an American problem A European task force recently found domestic violence accounts for 25 percent of all homicides in London and 35 percent across England and Wales In this timely book van Wormer and Roberts describe the problem and what they have seen and heard on the front lines with both women and men who have escaped domestic violence that was escalating toward deadly levels The text examines not only the psychology of the batterer but of domestic murder and domestic murder suicide Drawn from the experience and insights of these two widely known social workers the text includes a safety plan for those at risk and a chapter providing narratives of women in prison for killing their abusive husband or partner Drawing on the experience and insights of these two widely known social workers Death by Domestic Violence separates domestic violence myths and facts explains the traumatic bonding that occurs between batterer and victim and details how one facet of the solution could be school based interventions and education The book culminates with recommendations for further reduction of harm and a safety plan for those at risk
