The Scribes and Scholars of the City of Emar in the Late Bronze Age Yoram

Cohen, 2018-08-14 The city of Emar modern Tell Meskene in Syria is one of the most important sites of the western ancient Near East during the Late Bronze Age that have yielded cuneiform tablets The discovery of more than one thousand tablets and tablet fragments assures Emar's position along with Bogazkoy Hattusa and Ras Shamra Ugarit as a major scribal center Ephemeral documents such as wills or sale contracts texts about rituals and cultic festivals school texts and student exercises and inscribed seals and their impressions enable reconstruction of the Emar scribal school institution and provide materials for investigation into the lives of more than fifty scribes whose works were found in the city The aim of this book is to place Emar's scribal school institution within its social and historical context to observe the participation of its teachers and students in the study of the school curriculum to investigate the role of the scribes in the daily life of the city in particular within the administration and to evaluate the school's and its members position within the network of similar institutions throughout the ancient Near East

Animals and their Relation to Gods, Humans and Things in the Ancient World

Raija Mattila, Sanae Ito, Sebastian Fink, 2019-03-11 While Human Animal Studies is a rapidly growing field in modern history studies on this topic that focus on the Ancient World are few The present volume aims at closing this gap It investigates the relation between humans animals gods and things with a special focus on the structure of these categories An improved understanding of the ancient categories themselves is a precondition for any investigation into the relation between them

The focus of the volume lies on the Ancient Near East but it also provides studies on Ancient Greece Asia Minor Mesoamerica the Far East and Arabia

The Mythology of Kingship in Neo-Assyrian Art Mehmet-Ali Ataç, 2010-02-08 In this book Mehmet Ali Ata argues that the palace reliefs of the Neo Assyrian Empire hold a meaning deeper than simple imperial propaganda

Selected Essays on Pre- and Early Modern Mathematical Practice Jens Høyrup, 2019-09-20 This book presents a broad selection of articles mainly published during the last two decades on a variety of topics within the history of mathematics mostly focusing on particular aspects of mathematical practice This book is of interest to and provides methodological inspiration for historians of science or mathematics and students of these disciplines

The Correspondence of the Kings of Ur Piotr Michalowski, 2011-06-30 The Correspondence of the Kings of Ur is a collection of literary letters between the Ur III monarchs and their high officials at the end of the third millennium B C The letters cover topics of royal authority and proper governance defense of frontier regions and the ultimate disintegration of the empire and represent the largest corpus of Sumerian prose literature we possess This long awaited edition based on extensive collation of almost all extant manuscripts numbering more than a hundred includes detailed historical and literary analyses and copious philological commentary It entirely supersedes the Michalowski s oft cited unpublished Yale dissertation of 1976 The edition is accompanied by an extensive analysis of the place of the letters in early second millennium schooling treating the letters as literature followed by chapters that contextualize the epistolary material within historical and historiographic contexts utilizing many Sumerian archival literary and historical sources The main objective here is to try to navigate the complex issues of authenticity authority and fiction that arise from the study of these literary artifacts In addition Michalowski offers new hypotheses about many aspects of late third millennium history including essays on military history and strategy on frontiers on the nature and putative character of nomadism at the time as well as a long chapter on the role of a people designated as Amorites The included DVD includes various photographs at high resolution of most of the tablets included in the study

Literature as Politics, Politics as Literature David S. Vanderhooft, Abraham Winitzer, 2013-11-01 This volume in celebration of Peter Machinist Hancock Professor of Hebrew and Other Oriental Languages at Harvard University includes twenty eight illuminating essays on ancient Near Eastern history and literature which focus especially on the intersection of these fields Contributors include one of Machinist s teachers several of his students and numerous colleagues and friends These essays probe topics for which Machinist s work has often set new standards And in the spirit of the honoree and his interests these comparative studies encompass Babel Bibel and more In them Assyriologists contend with biblical cruxes and biblicists engage Assyriological research while classicists and Hittitologists participate with considerations of their respective disciplines within a broad cross cultural context The volume is a must for anyone committed to the ongoing comparative study of the ancient Near East and within that framework the historical study of the Hebrew Bible

Between Greece and Babylonia Kathryn Stevens, 2019-05-23 Focusing on Greece and Babylonia this book provides a new cross cultural approach to the intellectual history of the Hellenistic world
