Art and Visual Culture on the French Riviera, 1956-1971 Rosemary O'Neill,2012 Drawing on the primary sources and little known publications from museum archives collections in the region and privately owned archives Art and Visual Culture on the Riviera 1956 1971 offers the first in depth study of the Ecole de Nice The author shows how artists indigenous to the region challenged the dominance of Paris as the national standard at this moment of French decentralization efforts and growing internationalism in the arts

"Art and Visual Culture on the French Riviera, 1956-1971 " Rosemary O'Neill,2017-07-05 The Riviera in the 1950s and 1960s was culturally rich with modernist icons such as Matisse and Picasso in residence but also a burgeoning tourist culture that established the C d Azur as a center of indigenous artists associated with Nouveau R isme Fluxus and Supports Surfaces emerged under the mantle of the Ecole de Nice Drawing on the primary sources and little known publications generated during the period from museum archives collections in the region and privately owned archives this study integrates material published in monographic studies of individuals and art movements to offer the first in depth study of this important movement in twentieth century art The author situates the work of the Ecole de Nice within the broader social currents that are so important in contextualizing this phenomenon within this internal region of France and underscores why this work was so significant at this historical moment within the context of the broader European art scene and contemporary American art with which it shared affinities Despite their stylistic differences and associations with groups that are generally considered distinct O Neill discloses that these artists shared conceptual affinities theatrical modes of presentation based on appropriation use of the ready made and a determination to counter style driven painting associated with the postwar Ecole de Paris Art and Visual Culture on the Riviera 1956 1971 suggests that the emergence of an Ecole de Nice internally eroded the dominance of Paris as the national standard at this
