Now for the first time they collect together 120 of their science fiction short stories into a six-volume set called Colliding Worlds. Sixty stories total from each author, with ten stories from Rusch and ten from Smith in every volume. Volume 3 takes the series across time, space, and even into alternate history. Rusch's stories transport the reader from a future White House where staffers time travel to the past to Wall Street in the 1920s to the Underground Railroad. Meanwhile, Smith introduces a time travel jukebox, a space pirate whose best friend is a talking tree named Fred, and an alternate timeline for the Alamo. Mistletoe Man Susan Wittig Albert, 2001-10-01. In this intelligently plotted and deliciously descriptive tale, Publishers Weekly national bestselling author Susan Wittig Albert tells the story of a woman's search for justice and of her struggle to reconcile the demands of her business with the desires of her heart. Former big city lawyer China Bayles worked hard to make her Texas herb shop, Thyme and Seasons, a success. Now business is booming at her charming new tea room, Thyme for Tea, but China is too distracted to revel in her latest entrepreneurial triumph. When she's not trying to spend more time with her new husband and stepson, she's worrying about her best friend Ruby, who just hasn't been herself lately. To further complicate matters, China has to round up a supply of mistletoe, the season's most popular herb. It seems an easy enough task until her chief supplier turns up dead.
