Sunburnt Country:

The Sunburnt Country Society of Australian Writers, 1954 Collection of essays on Australia written by The Society of Australian Writers in Great Britain as a tribute to H M Queen Elizabeth II includes a few references to Aborigines article by J McLaren with observations on Aboriginal life style and customs In a Sunburned Country Bill Bryson, 2012-05-15 Deliciously funny fact filled and adventurous In a Sunburned Country takes us on a grand tour of Australia It s a place where interesting things happen all the time from a Prime Minister lost yes lost while swimming at sea to Japanese cult members who may entirely unnoticed have set off an atomic bomb on their 500 000 acre property in the great western desert Australia is the only island that is also a continent and the only continent that is also a country Its aboriginal people a remote and mysterious race with a tragic history have made it their home for millennia And despite the fact that it is the most desiccated infertile and climatically aggressive of all inhabited continents it teems with life In fact Australia has more things that can kill you in extremely nasty ways than anywhere else sharks crocodiles the planet s ten most deadly poisonous snakes fluffy yet toxic caterpillars sea shells that actually attack you and the unbelievable box jellyfish don t ask The dangerous riptides of the sea and the sun baked wastes of the outback both lie in wait for the unwary Australia is an immense and fortunate land and it has found in Bill Bryson its perfect guide In a Sunburned Country offers the best of all possible introductions to what may well be the best of all possible nations Even with those jellyfish The Rotarian, 1957-10 Established in 1911 The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide Each issue contains feature articles columns and departments about or of interest to Rotarians Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners from Mahatma Ghandi to Kurt Vonnegut Jr have written for the magazine When London Calls Stephen Alomes, 1999-10-11 For thousands of young Australians the tearful dockside farewell was a rite of passage as they boarded ships bound for London For some the journey was an extended holiday but for many actors painters musicians writers and journalists leaving Australia seemed to be the only path to personal and professional fulfilment This book first published in 2000 is a collective biography of those people who found themselves categorised as expatriates people such as Leo McKern Dame Joan Sutherland Barry Tuckwell Don Banks Phillip Knightley John Pilger Peter Porter Richard Neville Jill Neville and megastars Barry Humphries Germaine Greer and Clive James The book tells of choices they made about career and country yet it is also a cultural history that traces shifts in the complex relationship between Australia and Britain as the supposed colonial backwater began to develop its own cultural identity My Country David Marr, 2024-11-12 David Marr is the rarest of breeds one of Australia s most unflinching forensic reporters of political controversy and one of its most subtle and eloquent biographers In Marr s hands those things we call reportage and commentary are elevated to artful and illuminating chronicles of our time My Country collects his powerful reflections on religion sex censorship and the law striking accounts of leaders moralists and scandalmongers elegant ruminations on the arts and the lives of artists And some memorable new pieces My country is the subject that interests me most and I have spent my career trying to untangle its mysteries David Marr The Old Country George Seddon, 2005-10-04 We are a nation of gardeners and we take pleasure in tending our backyards But this pleasure sits uneasily with our knowledge that the places where most of us live are running out of water We suspect that our lawns and many of our plants from the damp climates of northern European gardens are too demanding of scarce supplies but can't imagine our streets and gardens without them The Old Country opens our eyes and minds to other possibilities It does so by telling us stories about our natural landscape George Seddon believes that the better we understand the delicacy and beauty of our natural environment the more at home we will feel as Australians This passionate wise and witty book enriched with breathtakingly beautiful illustrations suggests that the answers to our water problems lie here at home The Ashgate Research Companion to Heritage and Identity Professor Brian Graham, Professor Peter Howard, 2012-11-28 Heritage represents the meanings and representations conveyed in the present day upon artifacts landscapes mythologies memories and traditions from the past It is a key element in the shaping of identities particularly in the context of increasingly multicultural societies This Research Companion brings together an international team of authors to discuss the concepts ideas and practices that inform the entwining of heritage and identity They have assembled a wide geographical range of examples and interpret them through a number of disciplinary lenses that include geography history museum and heritage studies archaeology art history history anthropology and media studies This outstanding companion offers scholars and graduate students a thoroughly up to date guide to current thinking and a comprehensive reference to this growing field

Endurance Deb Anderson, 2014-11-05 Endurance presents stories of ordinary Australians grappling with extraordinary circumstances providing insight into their lives their experiences with drought and their perceptions of climate change The book opens with the physical impacts science politics and economics of drought and climate change in rural Australia It then highlights the cultural and historical dimensions taking us to the Mallee wheat belt where researcher Deb Anderson interviewed farm families from 2004 to 2007 as climate change awareness grew Each story is grouped into one of three themes Survival Uncertainty and Adaptation Illustrated with beautiful colour photographs from Museum Victoria Endurance will appeal to anyone with an interest in life stories rural Australia and the environment Weekly Compilation of Presidential Documents, 1966 Public Papers of the Presidents of the United States United States.
