William Meynell Whittemore, 1871. Savoring Gotham, 2015-11-11. Savoring Gotham traces the rise of New York City's global culinary stardom in 570 accessible yet well-researched A-Z entries. From the Native Americans who arrived in the area 5,000 years before New York was New York and who planted the maize, squash, and beans that European and other settlers to the New World embraced centuries later to Greek diners in the city that are arguably not diners at all, this is the first A-Z reference work to take a broad and historically informed approach to NYC food and drink. Australian Books in Print, 1991. National Identity in Contemporary Australian Opera Michael Halliwell, 2017-09-11. Opera has been performed in Australia for more than two hundred years yet none of the operas written before the Second World War have become part of the repertoire. It is only in the late 1970s and early 1980s that there is evidence of the successful systematic production of indigenous opera. The premiere of Voss by Richard Meale and David Malouf in 1986 was a watershed in the staging and reception of new opera and there has been a diverse series of new works staged in the last thirty years not only by the national company but also by thriving regional institutions. The emergence of a thriving operatic tradition in contemporary Australia is inextricably enmeshed in Australian cultural consciousness and issues of national identity. In this study of eighteen representative contemporary operas, Michael Halliwell elucidates the ways in which the operas reflect and engage with the issues facing contemporary Australians. Stylistically, these eighteen operas vary greatly. The musical idiom is diverse, ranging from works in a modernist idiom such as The Ghost Wife, Whitsunday, Fly Away, Peter Black River, and Bride of Fortune to Voss, Batavia, Bliss, Lindy, Midnight Son, The Riders, The Summer of the Seventeenth Doll, and The Children's Bach, being works which straddle several musical styles. A number of operas draw strongly on musical theatre, including The Eighth Wonder, Pecan Summer, The Rabbits, and Cloudstreet, and Love in the Age of Therapy is couched in a predominantly jazz idiom. While some of them are overtly political, all at least tangentially deal with recent cultural politics in Australia and offer sharply differing perspectives. The
