The Dogmatic And Mystical Theology Of John Donne:

The Dogmatic and Mystical Theology of John Donne Itrat Husain, 1938 “The” Dogmatic and Mystical Theology of John Donne Itrat Husain, 1970 The Dogmatic and Mystical Theology of John Donne, Etc. [With a Portrait.]. ITRAT HUSAIN. John Donne, 1938 The Dogmatic and Mystical Theology of John Donne Itrat Husain, 1975 The Dogmatic and Mystical Theology of John Donne Hrat Husain, 1938 John Donne in Meditation Louis Lohr Martz, 1970 Holds that a close reading of each poem as a whole shows that the two Anniversaries are significantly different in structure in the handling of Petrarchan imagery are consequently different in value Literature and the Encounter with God in Post-Reformation England Michael Martin, 2016-05-23 Each of the figures examined in this study John Dee John Donne Sir Kenelm Digby Henry and Thomas Vaughan and Jane Lead is concerned with the ways in which God can be approached or experienced Michael Martin analyzes the ways in which the encounter with God is figured among these early modern writers who inhabit the shared cultural space of poets and preachers mystics and scientists The three main themes that inform this study are Cura animarum the care of souls and the diminished role of spiritual direction in post Reformation religious life the rise of scientific rationality and the struggle against the disappearance of the Holy Arising from the methods and commitments of phenomenology the primary mode of inquiry of this study resides in contemplation not in a religious sense but in the realm of perception attendance and acceptance Martin portrays figures such as Dee Digby and Thomas Vaughan not as the eccentrics they are often depicted to have been but rather as participating in a religious mainstream that had been radically altered by the disappearance of any kind of mandatory or regular spiritual direction a problem which was further complicated and exacerbated by the rise of science Thus this study contributes to a reconfiguration of our notion of what religious orthodoxy really meant during the period and calls into question our own assumptions about what is or was orthodox and heterodox A Bibliography of Dr. John Donne Geoffrey Keynes, 2013-09-26 First published in 1958 this third edition supplies a detailed bibliography of the poet and cleric John Donne John Donne John Carey, 2011-11-03 Donne is perhaps the most intellectual of English poets and John Carey is perhaps the most intelligent of contemporary English literary critics The encounter as one might expect is fierce and enthralling This book is sensitive searching powerful exciting provocative and witty It is a superb achievement Christopher Hill TLS John Donne Life Mind and Art is a unique attempt to see Donne whole Beginning with an account of his life it takes as its domain not only the whole range of the poetry but also the sermons the letters the spiritual and controversial works and such highly personal documents as the treatise on suicide The result is a clearer picture than has hitherto emerged of one of the most intricate and compelling of literary personalities The one book we have needed all along A magnificent exercise in reappraisal I have never read a critical work which reaches as deeply inside the mind of its subject Jonathan Raban Sunday Times Carey s book is itself alive with the kind of energy it attributes to Donne Christopher Ricks London Review of Books To Our Bodies Turn We Then Felecia Wright

McDuffie, 2005-05-06 From his early love poetry to his late religious writing John Donne speaks of the human body as a book to be read and interpreted Unlike modern thinkers who understand the body as a purely material phenomenon or post modern critics who see in it a text produced by culture Donne understands the body as a scriptural text written by God In this study McDuffie offers a comprehensive interpretation of Donne's reading of the body In Donne's imaginative universe the human person lies at the center of the great interconnected web of God's signs and acts As such he makes it the touchstone of his own theology While his anthropology is basically orthodox the emphasis Donne places on the body and the role it plays in his religious poetics are distinctive Refusing to restrict God's revelation to the written words of Scripture Donne turns habitually to the book of the human body as a collection of signs that indicate God's nature his intent and the human condition He also at times represents the human body not as a mere sign but as sacrament a seal of the promises of God that conveys his presence and grace In his reading of the book of the body Donne discerns the narrative of salvation history the trajectory proceeding from creation through fall to redemption and resurrection He sets the body and salvation history into a dialogical relationship always reading one in terms of the other Donne reads in the body God's great love for the material the ravages of the Fall God's redemptive action in Christ and in the lives of the saints and the literal and figurative deaths that serve as gateways to resurrection and eschatological fulfillment
