The Drifting Poet:

The Drifting Poet Arturo Quartaro, 1986-09-01 Drifting with Clouds, Living by Poetry HongSheng

Zhang, 2023-04-12 Zhang explores the sociohistorical environment that produced those poets an era of political intrigues geopolitical threats the rise of commodity economy flourishing popular culture and glamorous urban life Poetry was their means of livelihood as they drifted between low positions or as commoners living by procuring favors from the powerful elite The sadness and joys of a life in precarity shaped their thematic and stylistic choices response to contemporary literary trends and choice of poetic models They formed a broad social network that straddled the scholar officials and ordinary townsmen While their poetry reflects the characteristics and concerns of both classes there emerged a shared voice distinctly their own that turned the tide of poetry in the 13th century

Rhythm and Will in Victorian Poetry Matthew Campbell, 1999-04-22 In Rhythm and Will in Victorian Poetry first published in 1999 Matthew Campbell explores the work of four Victorian poets Tennyson Browning Hopkins and Hardy as they show a consistent and innovative concern with questions of human agency and will The Victorians saw the virtues attendant upon a strong will as central to themselves and to their culture and Victorian poetry strove to find an aesthetic form to represent this sense of the human will Through close study of the metre rhyme and rhythm of a wide range of poems including monologue lyric and elegy Campbell reveals how closely technical questions of poetics are related in the work of these poets to issues of psychology ethics and social change He goes on to discuss more general questions of poetics and the implications of the achievement of the Victorian poets in a wider context from Milton through Romanticism and into contemporary critical debate

Twentieth-Century French Poetry Hugues Azérad, Peter Collier, 2010-05-20 Modern French poetry is unique in the boldness and creativity of its experiments in form and genre from classical verse to vers libre from calligrammes to prose poems and po sie sonore This anthology includes 32 poems by French and francophone poets each followed by an accessibly written detailed commentary The different approaches adopted in the close readings by specialists in their field reflect the major trends in current literary criticism and theory A foreword by one of France's foremost poets Yves Bonnefoy a general introduction and an afterword provide a helpful theoretical framework for the study of modern poetry An extensive bibliography concise biographies of the poets and a glossary of literary terms are included Students of French and of comparative literature will gain a deeper understanding of the development of French verse and of the artistic movements especially in the visual arts which have shaped twentieth century French poetry
