Gilliland, 1999-09-17 Toward the Twenty-first Century in Christian Mission James M. Phillips, Robert T. Coote, 1993

This unique volume offers a comprehensive survey of the prospects and critical issues for the Christian world mission The essays written by various mission experts cover such topics as the biblical and theological basis of the mission women in mission urban mission dialogues with other faiths the anthropology of popular religions and more Unlikely Friends

David W. Scott, Daryl R. Ireland, Grace Y. May, Casely B. Essamuah, 2021-07-08 Can something as simple as friendship have a transformative impact in a divided world Through a series of richly textured historical portraits and reflections on personal experience this book shows that boundary crossing friendships in Christian mission have shaped theologies built organizations and partnerships facilitated mission work and changed attitudes and ways of thinking This is true in settings as varied as eighteenth century French women s work twentieth century urban Boston colonial India the Jim Crow South and twentieth century rural Congo In all these settings and more friendship has mattered Boundary crossing friendships are however not easy Despite their power such friendships are complicated by race gender ability class nationality and other elements of identity as this book also demonstrates Friendships are not immune from the divisions in the world nor a simple cure all for them Still friendship stands as a powerful testimony to the gospel Therefore the book calls for more attention to friendship in the study of mission history and more living out of friendship as a practice of mission In this way this book pays honor to Dr Dana L Robert as a pre eminent mission scholar and exemplary friend and mentor to others in the fields of missiology and world Christianity New Dictionary of Theology Martin Davie, Tim Grass, Stephen R. Holmes, John

McDowell, Thomas A. Noble, 2016-04-27 This classic one volume reference work is now substantially expanded and revised to focus on a variety of theological themes thinkers and movements From African Christian Theology to Zionism this volume of historical and systematic theology offers a wealth of information and insight for students pastors and all thoughtful Christians MissionShift David Hesselgrave, Ed Stetzer, 2010-07-01 Essays on modern missions issues by Charles Van

Engen Paul Hiebert and Ralph Winter with responses from other missional leaders edited by David Hesselgrave and Ed Stetzer Cross-Cultural Missional Partnership Joshua Bowman, 2023-03-28 Cross cultural partnerships in today s

global environment are both challenging and necessary Misunderstanding and miscommunication often lead to conflict between culturally diverse groups Christians must understand and evaluate their own culture the culture of others and the text of Scripture itself while remaining faithful to Scripture and relevant to culture Unmediated tensions combined with relational isolation lead to a myriad of problems This study proposes cross cultural missional partnership as a relationship that mediates these tensions thereby encouraging mutual faithful engagement in the mission of God Cross cultural tensions may never disappear but within a healthy partnership partners can assist one another in understanding and responding faithfully to Scripture Partners help one another more faithfully interpret and apply Scripture leading to obedience to God's will and engagement in God's mission within unique and diverse contexts

Emerging from the Dark Age Ahead Charles Fensham, 2011 In this fascinating presentation of faith Charles Fensham argues cogently and passionately for a church that embraces hope in spite of the dark and destructive pressures all around it Although a metaphoric dark time awaits Christianity Fensham assures his readers that this darkness merely conceals the light for the future Emerging from the Dark Age Ahead offers a prophetic and challenging call for contemporary Christians to ask where we have come from where we are and where we are going Professor Fensham borrows from Jane Jacobs the metaphor of the Dark Age ahead bringing social and cultural analysis to bear upon a fresh theology of church and mission for our time and place Drawing from deep roots in the trinitarian tradition and borrowing insight from historic monasticism he calls for a pilgrim steward church that will speak and act constructively in the coming time of troubles This is a creative original work that will stimulate theological students and lay folk as well Harold Wells Professor Emeritus Emmanuel College University of Toronto Insightful provocative instructive words that describe how this book helps the church navigate the deep cultural challenge it now faces of massive technique organized through digitalization Grounding the church's life in a missional hermeneutic of reading Scripture and the church's identity in the social Trinity Fensham boldly yet carefully charts a course for engaging the dark age ahead Craig Van Gelder Ph D Professor of Congregational Mission Luther Seminary Charles Fensham has a unique perspective on the emergent church Born in apartheid South Africa and raised within the apartheid tainted Reformed church he is an immigrant to Canada with experiences of the church in France Switzerland the South Pacific and Africa He teaches at Knox College at the University of Toronto

Joyful Witness in the Muslim World (Mission in Global Community) Evelyne A. Reisacher, 2016-09-20 This up to date textbook features global perspectives on current Christian engagement with Islam equipping readers for mission among Muslims Evelyne Reisacher who has worked extensively with Muslims in Europe helps readers move from fear to joy as they share the gospel with Muslims Reisacher surveys areas where Muslims and Christians encounter one another in the twenty first century highlighting innovative models of Christian witness in everyday life Drawing on insights from global Christianity this survey takes account of diverse conceptions of Muslim Christian relations The book may surprise those who believe mission among Muslims is nearly impossible This is the first book in the Mission in Global Community series which reframes missiological themes and studies for students around the common theme of mission as partnership with others Series authors draw upon their own global experience and that of their global colleagues to illumine present realities and chart a course into the future Series editors are Scott W Sunquist and Amos Yong

God So Loves the City Charles E. Van Engen, Jude Tiersma, 2009-08-01 From the explosive contexts of Nairobi Mexico City Los Angeles and Madras burst fresh insights on the mission of the church for the city Jude Tiersma and Charles Van Engen worked closely with an international team of experienced urban practitioners to explore the most urgent issues facing those who minister in today's cities From each particular urban setting a team member contributed a story from ministry in the city Each story uniquely illustrates a different challenge of urban ministry in the face of injustice marginalization and urban structures This book brings you these stories then retells them in light of Scripture introducing new hope to each one From these stories emerge new ideas about the nature of cities and how to practice ministry in them The new methodology employed by Van Engen and Tiersma's team leads us in the first steps toward a theology of mission for the city God So Loves the City is a must for pastors seminary students missiologists congregation members and all who are concerned about urban ministry

The Reception of Vatican II Matthew L. Lamb, Matthew Levering, 2017 A sequel to Vatican II Renewal within Tradition OUP 2008 The Reception of Vatican II shows how the Council has been received and interpreted over the course of the more than fifty years since it concluded The meaning of the Second Vatican Council has been fiercely contested since before it was even over and since its completion has seen a battle for the soul of the Church waged through the interpretation of Council documents Each essay in this volume looks at how one of those documents has been interpreted in the post Vatican II era and points the way forward for its future reception

Understanding Insider Movements Harley Talman, John Jay Travis, 2015-09-01 For the first time in history large numbers of people from the world's major non-Christian religions are following Jesus as Lord Surprisingly for many Western Christians they are choosing to do so within the religious communities of their birth and outside of institutional Christianity How does this work and how should we respond to these movements This long-awaited anthology brings together some of the best writings on the topic of insider movements Diverse voices explore this phenomenon from the perspectives of Scripture history theology missiology and the experience and identity of insider believers Those who are unfamiliar with the subject will find this book a crucial guide to a complex conversation Students and instructors of mission will find it useful as a reader and reference volume Field workers and agencies will discover in these chapters welcome starting points for dialogue and clearer communication The first book to provide a comprehensive survey of the topic of insider movements Understanding Insider Movements is an indispensable companion for those who want to glimpse the creative unexpected boundary crossing ways God is at work among the peoples of the world in their diverse religious communities

Freedom of the Self Jeffrey F. Keuss, 2010-07-01 Freedom of the Self revitalizes the question of identity formation in a postmodern era through a deep reading of Christian life in relation to current trends seen in the Emergent and Missional church movements By relocating deep identity formation as formed and released through a renewed appraisal of kenotic Christology coupled with readings of Continental philosophy Derrida Levinas Marion and popular culture Keuss offers a bold vision for what it means to be truly human in contemporary society as what he calls the kenotic self In addition to providing a robust reflection of philosophical and theological understanding of identity formation from Aristotle and Augustine through to contemporary thinkers Freedom of the Self suggests some tangible steps for the individual and the church in regard to how everyday concerns such as economics literature and urbanization can be part of living into the life of the kenotic self

Roland Allen II Steven Richard Rutt,2018-04-25 In Roland Allen A Theology of Mission a companion work with Roland Allen A Missionary Life Steven Richard Rutt completes a portrait of Roland Allen 1868 1947 in this intellectual biography Extensive archival evidence discloses how apostolic principles formed the basis for Allen s missionary theology Although it is well known that Allen s hermeneutical ideas were born of Pauline principles Steven Richard Rutt expounds the ways in which Allen s missionary experiences had profoundly impacted Allen s theological beliefs Allen wrote about his findings in letters sermons articles and books some of which were never published Allen s writings tenaciously challenged the methodology of colonial missionary societies and exposed the causes hindering Church expansion failures occurred in missions due to the imposition of Western missionary paternalism and institutional devolution Allen advocated the empowerment of indigenous churches to apply the principles of self government and self support He asserted the importance of the Pauline concept of Spirit and order which encompasses both the doctrine of the Holy Spirit as well as that of the Church Allen s diagnosis of the missionary situation and the proposed ways to restore apostolic order presented contemporary controversy but since his death we have seen the importance of Allen s ideas in Mission studies grow steadily With an expert evaluation of Allen s theological insight Roland Allen A Theology of Mission also offers a superb contribution to the discipline of historical theology and historical missiology as Rutt delves into a contextual assay into the missionary landscape of the nineteenth and the twentieth centuries
