The Goodby People:

The Goodby People Gavin Lambert, 1971 The Goodby People Gavin Lambert, 2022-08-09 First published in 1971 The Goodby People is perhaps the greatest novel ever written about post-Manson pre-Disney Los Angeles. His elegant stripped-down prose caught the last gasp of Old Hollywood in a way that has yet to be rivalled. Armistead Maupin, the bisexual draft dodger living on the skids, the glamorous young widow in search of enlightenment, the skinny gamine from out of town who wants to make it in the movies—these are the people who inhabit Gavin Lambert's mordant portrait of Southern California at the end of the 1960s, forever swapping addresses, lovers, and dreams. They live in extraordinary, suffocating wealth or else flirting with a Mansonesque cult or else in a fantasy where golden-age actresses make ghostly visitations to comment on their daily life. All that binds them together is their common sense of aimlessness and the clear judgment-free eye of a British author trying his best to be a friend to each. Cool, incisive, yet essentially kind and very much ahead of its time, The Goodby People unfolds in the yawning chasm between real life in Los Angeles and the fantasies manufactured by its dominant business. Gary Indiana and stands as Gavin Lambert's masterpiece.

The Goodbye People Gavin Lambert, 2000 Long before the term Generation X was coined, Gavin Lambert captured the seedy landscape of Los Angeles in absolute moral and physical decay. The Goodbye People is a danse macabre with a group of ill-assorted people who are always changing their addresses and phone numbers as well as their lives. In an atmosphere of self-indulgence, blight, and emptiness, they revolve around one another, weaving together their dreams and nightmares to create a complex pattern of despair. The beautiful people who populate Lambert's novel are both the very rich and the very poor; what intrinsically links them is an all-pervading sense of aimlessness. First published in 1971, The Goodbye People is an enduring classic and one of the most incisive takes on Hollywood ever written. With The Slide Area, Inside Daisy Clover, and Running Time, The Goodbye People forms a revelatory Hollywood Quartet of lives in one of the most extraordinary cities in the world.

The Good-bye Angel Ignácio de Loyola Brandão, 2011 In Arealva, Brazil, a serial killer named the Good Bye Angel kills one victim per year to cleanse the Earth, and after his latest murder, reporter Pedro Quimera sets off a series of events as he attempts to cover the story.

The Good-bye Window Harriet Brown, 1998-10-12 Have you ever wondered what really goes on at your child's day care center after you say good-bye? Harriet Brown did. To satisfy her curiosity, she spent an entire year observing Red Caboose, a center in Madison, Wisconsin. This engaging and thought-provoking book is the story of that year. In her beautifully written personal account, journalist and mother Brown takes us behind the scenes at a day care center that works. At Red Caboose, one of the oldest independent centers in the country, we meet teachers who have worked with young children for more than twenty years. We watch the child care union and parents struggle to negotiate a contract without ripping apart the fabric of trust and love that holds the Red Caboose community together. We look at the center's finances to see what keeps Red Caboose going at a time when other good centers are disappearing. Best of all, we get to know the children, families, and teachers of Red Caboose their struggles their sorrows their triumphs Started twenty five years ago by a group of idealistic parents the center has not only survived but thrived through some pretty tough times In the world of day care Red Caboose is a special place a model for what child care in this country could and should be not just babysitting not just a service to working parents but a benefit for children families teachers and the community at large Brown sets her rich and engaging stories in the greater political and social context of our time Why is so much child care bad Why should working Americans worry about the link between welfare reform and child care What can we learn from the history of child care This book is a must read for parents educators and anyone who enjoys first rate writing and dead on insight into the lives of our youngest children and those who care for them Brown s writing is beautiful and her scholarship sound Students considering day care careers day care professionals and concerned parents will gain insight by reading this provocative book as will anyone who cares about the future of young children in this country Choice I admire enormously the ambition of this book its eagle eyed witness and engrossing detail plus the social importance of the project I wish there were in the world more books like it

Lorrie Moore author of Who Will Run the Frog Hospital The Good bye Window is a fascinating peek into the secret world of children With the poignancy of Anne LaMott and the reportorial grace of Tracy Kidder Harriet Brown has written a terrific and worthwhile book Meg Wolitzer author of This Is Your Life Harriet Brown s well told story of the Red Caboose child care center should be read by teachers and parents but also by every legislator and politician in the land Only a writer as good as Ms Brown could display the dramatic complexities of a school community in which the youngest members enter crawling and emerge a few years later as articulate empathetic and well socialized individuals ready for the real world Vivian Gussin Paley author of The Boy Who Would Be a Helicopter

Mainly about Lindsay Anderson Gavin Lambert, 2000 Lindsay Anderson was the most original British filmmaker and theatrical director of his generation His films If O Lucky Man and Britannia Hospital created a Human Comedy of life in Britain during the second half of the twentieth century and were witty daring and often prophetic This Sporting Life and O Lucky Man made Richard Harris and Malcolm McDowell international stars The Whales of August provided Lillian Gish Bette Davis and Ann Sothorn the opportunity to give extraordinary farewell performances He also directed notable documentaries in several countries in Britain the Academy Award winning Thursday s Children about a school for deaf mute children in Poland The Singing Lesson a personal impression of a group of students at a drama school In China he recorded the 1985 concert tour by George Michael and Andrew Ridgeley of WHAM As a theatre director he collaborated with playwright David Storey on a series of successes The Contractor The Changing Room In Celebration Home and he worked with such actors as John Gielgud Ralph Richardson Alan Bates Albert Finney Helen Mirren Peter O Toole Joan Plowright and Rachel Roberts Anderson was as well an outspoken and sometimes ferocious critic of British films and of Britain itself. He was the author of the most important and acclaimed book on John Ford. And he was one of Gavin Lambert's closest friends for more than fifty years. Lambert's book begins with his and Anderson's days as movie-struck schoolboys becoming fast friends growing up in the shadow of World War II. He shows us their postwar creation of and collaboration on the influential magazine Sequence, a magazine that was produced on love and a shoestring and which shook up the British film world with its admiration for both Hollywood noir and MGM musicals at the time unfashionable genres and its celebration of such directors as Ford, Bunuel, Cocteau, Vigo and Sturges. He describes how both men rebelled in opposite directions, Anderson remaining in England, Lambert leaving in 1958 for Los Angeles and traces their unorthodox paths through the film industry. An illuminating multifaceted portrait of a friendship of postwar moviemaking on both sides of the Atlantic and mainly of the remarkable Lindsay Anderson. The Fulfillment of Visionary Dream Stella H.

History of Forgetting Norman M. Klein, 2008-08-17 Los Angeles is a city which has long thrived on the continual re-creation of its own myth. In this extraordinary and original work Norman Klein examines the process of memory erasure in LA. Using a provocative mixture of fact and fiction, the book takes us on an anti-tour of downtown LA, examines life for Vietnamese immigrants in the City of Dreams, imagines Walter Benjamin as a Los Angeleno and finally looks at the way information technology has recreated the city, turning cyberspace into the last suburb. In this new edition Norman Klein examines new models for erasure in LA. He explores the evolution of the Latino majority, how the Pacific economy is changing the structure of urban life, the impact of collapsing infrastructure in the city and the restructuring of those very districts that had been forgotten. New York Times Saturday Book Review Supplement, 1971 *The Don't Diet, Live-It! CASTING FOR BIG IDEAS Andrew Jaffe, 2003-06-26 CASTING FOR BIG IDEAS ist das einzige Buch zum Thema Werbung, das sich mit der Leitung einer Werbeagentur auseinandersetzt. Es basiert auf der langjährigen Praxiserfahrung und dem engen Netz persönlicher Kontakte des Autors Andrew Jaffe. Altvater der Werbebranche präsentiert hier wichtige Lektionen zu Management und Erfolg einer Werbeagentur. Er macht deutlich, dass das Geschäftsmodell von vor 40 Jahren heute ausgedient hat. In einer Zeit, in der Kürzungen des Werbebudgets an der Tagesordnung sind und immer neue Formen externer Marketing Services und Strategien gefragt sind, anhand der Metapher des Fliegenfischens beschreibt er einen Ansatz für langfristiges und beständiges Wachstum in dieser äußerst wettbewerbsintensiven und wechselhaften Branche, die ja gerade von kurzfristigen Erfolgen profitiert.
