The Gospel Of Moses:

The Gospel according to Moses Daniel I. Block, 2012-02-10 To many people the law stands in opposition to the gospel While it may be possible to read Paul's epistles this way the book of Deuteronomy will not allow this reading Like the book of Romans in the New Testament Deuteronomy provides the most systematic and sustained presentation of theology in the Old Testament And like the Gospel of John it represents mature theological reflection on God's great acts of salvation in this case associated with the exodus of Israel from Egypt The gospel according to Moses begins and ends with the gracious work of God for undeserving subjects In a book that consists largely of Moses' farewell sermons to his congregation Israel's first pastor seeks to inspire his congregation to a life of faith and godliness in response to God's great mercy Unfortunately for many Christians Deuteronomy is a dead book because we have lost sight of the gospel The essays in this collection arise from a larger project driven by a passion to recover for Christians the life giving message of the Old Testament in general and the gospel according to Moses in particular The meditations in this volume cover a wide range of topics from explorations into the origins of Deuteronomy to considerations of the ethical and homiletical relevance of the book for Christians today

Turning Point in the Gospel of Mark Gregg S. Morrison, 2014-09-24 Based on linguistic and thematic links in the narrative The Turning Point in the Gospel of Mark argues that the twin pericopae of Peter's confession 8:27-38 and the Transfiguration 9:2-13 together function as the turning point of the Gospel and serve in a Janus-like manner enabling the reader to see the author's main focus the identity of Jesus and the significance of that reality for his disciples Peter's confession of Jesus as Messiah faces backward toward the Prologue 1:1-13 and functions as a mid-course conclusion The declaration by God on the mountain faces forward and foreshadows the end-course conclusion 14:61-62 15:39 Son of God Jesus in response teaches that the Son of Man must suffer and die before being raised from the dead 8:31 Christologically the images of Messiah Son of Man and Son of God converge and present Jesus the crucified as king ushering in the kingdom of God in power 9:1 acting as the key swivel between the twin pericopae When one is confronted with this Jesus though there remains something elusive about him and the kingdom of God in the narrative the only wise decision after calculating the costs 8:34-38 is to follow

The Christological Witness Function of the Old Testament Characters in the Gospel of John Sanghee M. Ahn, 2014-06-01 This book investigates the narrative function of the Old Testament characters in the Gospel of John The fascinating thesis is that the Hebrew characters in John's narrative uniformly function as a witness for the messianic identity of Jesus The Jewish scriptural traditions Hebrew and intertestamental ones are compared to shed light on John's indebtedness for its formation of his Christology A compelling argument ensues which informs our understanding not only of the Gospel itself but also of Jesus Christ revealed in the Gospel COMMENDATION Dr Ahn's thorough and careful study represents a solid contribution from which many will benefit All serious interpreters of the Johannine witness will want to refer to this work Mark A.
