A Dangerous Report J. Harold Ellens, 2014-02-28 This volume is tightly packed with surprising insights one simply does not normally hear from the pulpit but yet are so obviously implied in the biblical narratives of Christmas and Easter Dr. Ellens has a unique way of cracking open familiar biblical sentences and stories and spilling out an entirely fresh cornucopia of life-changing insights about the radical nature of the good news about God's grace Ideas and metaphors from the Bible that we have heard or read so often that they have become routine and cliché suddenly flower with refreshing new meanings and intimations Dr. Ellens carefully and cogently expressed biblical interpretation and sermon oratory incarnate God's truth and bring to lively new vitality a vivid experience of God as the driving force of Divine Spirit in our personal lives and in history Preaching has seldom been this engaging powerful and spiritually empowering This warm-hearted book is a clear and clarion call for one central theme God's radical uncalculating unconditional and universal forgiving grace Claims for God's redemptive presence and intent for our world that pulpiteers have often feared avoided or failed to see in the center of the gospel are here set forth with unapologetic boldness Dr. Ellens' trumpet is not muted at any point Obviously this hearty soul has a passion for the spirit a stimulating mind and an informed pastoral appeal for life-changing encounters with the biblical story and of the insinuation of God's self into human and historical life at Christmas Easter and all other times The

Lutheran Quarterly, 1906 Sermons to the People Augustine of Hippo, 2002-10-15 A superb new translation brings the words of Augustine the preacher stirringly to life When the great Saint Augustine was called from his country home to become Bishop of Hippo in the fourth century his new responsibilities took him away from the solitude of his writing and into the glare of the public eye The author of two of the greatest works of religious literature Confessions and City of God Augustine became a shepherd to the people inspiring and enlightening them with his sermons His skills as a speaker were as great if not greater than his skills as a writer According to his friend Possidius Those who read what Augustine wrote on the divine topics do get something out of them But those who saw and heard him in person they were the ones who got heaven and Earth Sermons to the People collects the homilies on the liturgical seasons of the Church Saint Augustine delivered over the course of his lifetime This Image edition includes the first sermons in that vast collection from Advent Christmas New Year's and the Epiphany Newly translated by William Griffin they address timeless concerns including the problems of materialism and the intellectual difficulties of faith Griffin renders the sermons with such immediacy it is as though he had been present when Augustine spoke to his flock

The Divine Office in the Latin Middle Ages Margot E. Fassler, Rebecca A. Baltzer, 2000-08-17 The Divine Office the cycle of daily worship other than the Mass is the richest source of liturgical texts and music from the Latin Middle Ages However its richness the great diversity of its manuscripts and its many variations from community to community have made it difficult to study and it remains largely unexplored terrain This volume is a practical guide to the Divine Office for students and scholars throughout the field of medieval studies The book surveys the many questions related to the Office and presents the leading analytical tools and research methods now used in the field Beginning with the Office in the early Middle Ages the book covers manuscript sources and their contents regional developments and variations the relationship between the Office the Mass and other ceremonies and repertoires and the deep links between the Office and medieval hagiography The book concludes with a discussion of recent technical advances for handling the enormous amounts of evidence on the Office and its performance in particular CANTUS the vast electronic database developed by Ruth Steiner of Catholic University for the analysis of chant repertoires The Divine Office in the Latin Middle Ages is an essential resource for anyone studying medieval liturgy Its accessible style and broad coverage make it an important basic reference for a wide range of students and scholars in art history religious studies social history literature musicology and theology

A Year of Grace, Volume 1 Bo Giertz, Bror Erickson, 2019-06-07 These sermons are taken from various stages in Bo Giertz's pastoral career from his time as a parish pastor his time as a bishop and his time in retirement He adapted the homiletical style of Henric Schartau whose homiletical style informs the novel The Hammer of God Schartau would preach in a manner that expounded on the text before applying it to people who might find themselves in three different spiritual conditions sometimes this is referred to as an Ordo Salutis These three would be that of an unbeliever a newly awakened Christian or young believer and that of a mature believer This has met with some controversy over the years as it was often identified with pietism however Bo Giertz is aware of the pitfalls of this approach and turns the method in a matter that emphasizes the strengths When it comes to the order of grace Bo Giertz would say that it is not the order that matters but the grace Humming Till the Music Returns Wayne Brouwer,1999 One day God will stand again as solo conductor on the podium of the universe and lead in the crashing finale of the symphony of life But until then we who are left in this world with the buzzing and blaring of many competing and changing top 40 hits need to keep humming the tune that Jesus taught from the Introduction The scripture lessons for these seasons combine themes of waiting in expectation and displaying the effects of eternity within the context of time Though the dulling ache of sin and corruption pushes the song of creation out of tune Jesus intervenes with a melody of grace and the church keeps the music alive in witness and testimony while longing for the chorus of eternity to shout hallelujah once again Wayne Brouwer s messages ring loud and true in the ears of those who hear these sermons Sermon titles include I Can t Wait 1 Corinthians 13 9 Tilting the Balance of Power Romans 16 25 27 Anti Venom Serum Galatians 4 4 7 Finding the Right Superlatives Ephesians 1 3 14 Beyond Personal Preferences 1 Corinthians 8 1 13 Wayne Brouwer is a graduate of Dordt College in Sioux Center Iowa and has done graduate study at Calvin Theological Seminary Grand Rapids Michigan Christ Seminary Seminex St Louis Missouri and McMaster University Hamilton Ontario where he is working toward his Ph D He has served as President of the CRC Publications Board and Vice President of the Synod of the Christian Reformed Church in North America Prior to his present position as senior pastor of Harderwyk Christian Reformed Church in Holland Michigan Brouwer was Assistant Professor of Theology at Redeemer Christian College in Ancaster Ontario He also has taught at the Reformed Theological College of Nigeria in Mkar Nigeria He has published many books and over 100 articles devotionals and sermons Sermonic City Sidewalks James G.
