May Stone, 2023-08-02 Challenging the human understanding of life and death the zombie figure represents a fragmentation of personhood From its earliest appearances in literature the zombie characterized a human being that was no longer an indivisible whole embodying the ontological debate over which elements of personhood are most uniquely human Through its literary evolution the zombie s missing element gradually approached a finer definition as narratives moved beyond highlighting metaphysically opaque concepts like soul or will Studying over a century of American literary history this book explores how zombies translate cultural concepts and definitions of personhood Chapters detail how literary zombies have long presented narratives of American cultural self examination      Private Sector Alternatives for Preventing Reading Failure Patrick J. Groff, 1987      Occupied Reading Alan A. Block, 2023-05-31 Today s growing national concern about education centers on the paramount importance of teaching reading and writing This volume offers a rigorous examination of reading and the pedagogy of reading critically The book examines the crucial role of reading in the education of the child for the year 2000 and explores the history of reading and readers in America while surveying the attendant literacy debates The author examines the historical progress of American reading instruction demonstrating that how one is taught to read not only determines what one will read but also what is permissible to read and how pedagogies of reading define reading publics An important chapter focuses on reading as a process of identity construction that creates not only a text but shapes the person who reads that text The book also describes reading as a psychological process in which the creative act of manipulating the text produces the self and the world A final chapter discusses reading as the center of the educational system and examines methodologies An index is provided Illiteracy in America National Advisory Council on Adult Education (U.S.).
