The Great And The Near Great A Century Of Sports In Virginia:

The Great and the Near Great Abe Goldblatt, Robert W. Wentz, 1976 The Quest for Excellence Bob McCurdy, 2021-08-16 Bob was an incredible coach and mentor The lessons he taught me have guided my life both personally and professionally There is no better way to describe Bob than coach and like the great basketball coaches from his favorite sport Bob instilled a daily commitment to excellence If you were fortunate enough to work for Bob you worked hard you practiced and refined your craft competed to win and took better care of your clients than anyone else Those lessons learned early on not only served me well in each step of my career but i hope made me a better husband father son and friend In the Quest for Excellence Bob shares this game plan for success in business and life There are countless people Bob mentored over the years that have gone on to become incredibly successful Erik Hellum Chief Operating Officer Townsquare Media

Through the Hoop (1979) Tema Okun, Peter Wood, Bob Hall, Chris Mayfield, Marc Miller, Jim Overton, Joe Pfister, Kathleen Zobel, Through the Hoop To arc a jump shot through the orange rim to tap in a rebound putting the ball through the hoop represents a transcendent moment in basketball for player team and crowd Such a moment exists in every sport But to enjoy it fans and athletes alike are often forced through other kinds of hoops Sports can be violent lonely poetic painful uplifting It can breed fitness or injury sufficiency or dependence pride or prejudice friendship or hostility When does the discipline of sport become dangerous obedience When does self mastery become self aggrandizement When does athletic activity cease to be empowering for the participants and fans to become an exercise of power over us Answers to such questions are hard to find Sports unlike most topics previously addressed in special issues of Southern Exposure labor women folk life health prisons has never had a network of informed progressives working outside the established channels posing critical questions offering insightful direction for our thinking and doing Trusted commentators and friends who know where they stand and why with regard to other central aspects of our culture shy away from giving serious thought to sport As a result many of us are left with personal confusions brought on by alternating experiences of frustration and fulfillment How do we talk about a subject that on the one hand can be so easily criticized for abuses and on the other hand remains so compelling How do we effectively criticize the sports establishment that manages ACC basketball or NFL football when we find ourselves glued to the set at playoff time Black Ball: A Negro Leagues Journal, Vol. 8 Leslie A.
