The Great Big One J. C. Geiger, 2021-07-13 With natural disasters and nuclear war threatening their small town two twin brothers find themselves enraptured by mysterious music that could change the course of their lives Everyone in Clade City knows their days are numbered The Great Cascadia Earthquake will destroy their hometown and reshape the entire West Coast if they survive long enough to see it Nuclear war is increasingly likely Wildfires Or another pandemic To Griff the daily forecast feels partly cloudy with a chance of apocalyptic horsemen Griff's brother Leo and the Lost Coast Preppers claim to be ready They've got a radio station Luminous underwater monitors A sweet bunker and an unsettling plan for disaster ready rodents But Griff's more concerned about what he can do before the end times He'd like to play in a band for one Hopefully with Charity Simms Her singing could make the whole world stop When Griff Leo and Charity stumble upon a mysterious late night broadcast one song changes everything It's the best band they've ever heard on a radio signal even the Preppers can't trace They vow to find the music but aren't prepared for where their search will take them Or for what they'll risk when survival means finding the one thing you cannot live without Children's Book Review Index ,1985 The

Flight of the Golden Bird Duncan Williamson, 2013-08-22 Duncan Williamson one of Scotland's Travelling People has been celebrated as the bearer of Scotland's greatest national treasure the richest trove of story and song in Europe In this collection he passes on some of these wonderful children's folk and fairy tales collected from sixty years of travelling around Scotland This collection includes stories about silver horses and golden birds cunning lions and trilling nightingales brave princesses and magic scarecrows the four seasons and old Father Time At the heart of each story is a lesson about life and what it means to be a good person The stories have been written down as faithfully as possible to Duncan's unique storytelling voice full of colour humour and life The Man with the Golden Arm Nelson Algren, 2011-01-04 A novel of rare genius The Man with the Golden Arm describes the dissolution of a card dealing WWII veteran named Frankie Machine caught in the act of slowly cutting his own heart into wafer thin slices For Frankie a murder committed may be the least of his problems The literary critic Malcolm Cowley called The Man with the Golden Arm Algren's defense of the individual while Carl Sandburg wrote of its strange midnight dignity A literary tour de force here is a novel unlike any other one in which drug addiction poverty and human failure somehow suggest a defense of human dignity and a reason for hope Tatler & Bystander ,1918 Handmade Tales 2 Dianne de Las Casas, 2013-03-21 Children love seeing ordinary objects such as paper and string transformed into extraordinary things This book provides a collection of fun make and take tales that enable educators and librarians to take storytelling to a higher level Can something as simple as a handkerchief rubber band paper plate or piece of rope be used to captivate children during a storytelling An expansion of the original best selling Handmade Tales book author and storyteller Dianne de Las Casas provides 25 more clever handmade tales appropriate for pre kindergarten to third grade By following her clear instructions on incorporating inexpensive props comprised of everyday items into these fun make and take stories educators and librarians can exponentially expand the appeal of their storytime efforts Including different types of make and take stories like string stories draw and tell paper tales and stories that use other simple props the handmade tales in this book are ideal for preschool and elementary school teachers and librarians of all experience levels Storytellers scout leaders camp counselors and others who work with groups of young children will also find these make and take stories and instructions invaluable
