CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA, THE EARLY YEARS (1903-1913) Alissandra Dramov, 2013 Carmel by the Sea The Early Years 1903 1913 describes the establishment of Carmel by the Sea California along with an overview of the history of the Carmel Mission and the Monterey Peninsula The book's emphasis is on the development of Carmel as a Bohemian artists and writers colony at the start of the 20th century The town's first decade of existence is described the businesses and services offered and the residential architecture There are biographies of the well known Bohemian artists writers poets builders and other notable residents and visitors in the early 1900's This original group of settlers the majority of whom came from Northern California's Bay Area were distinctive individuals who were drawn to the coastal village by its scenic beauty and the inspiration it provided for their intellectual pursuits They set the tone that made Carmel by the Sea a Bohemian enclave on the West Coast and distinguished it as a unique place These early residents and visitors left a significant and lasting impact on the future of the seaside town which in turn attracted other creative talents to the area through the years and still to this day Carmel by the Sea The Early Years 1903 1913 preserves the literary artistic cultural and architectural heritage of Carmel and the Monterey Peninsula region

Aimee Semple McPherson and the Making of Modern Pentecostalism, 1890-1926 Chas H. Barfoot, 2014-09-19 Pentecostalism was born at the turn of the twentieth century in a tumble down shack in a rundown semi industrial area of Los Angeles composed of a tombstone shop saloons livery stables and railroad freight yards One hundred years later Pentecostalism has not only proven to be the most dynamic representative of Christian faith in the past century but a transnational religious phenomenon as well In a global context Pentecostalism has attained a membership of 500 million growing at the rate of 20 million new members a year Aimee Semple McPherson born on a Canadian farm was Pentecostalism's first celebrity its female Billy Sunday Arriving in Southern California with her mother two children and 100 00 in 1920 Sister Aimee as she was fondly known quickly achieved the height of her fame In 1926 by age 35 Sister Aimee would pastor America's largest class A church perhaps becoming the country's first mega church pastor In Los Angeles she quickly became a folk hero and civic institution Hollywood discovered her when she brilliantly united the sacred with the profane Anthony Quinn would play in the Temple band and Aimee would baptize Marilyn Monroe council Jean Harlow and become friends with Charlie Chaplain Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford Based on the biographer's first time access to internal church documents and cooperation of Aimee's family and friends this major biography offers a sympathetic appraisal of her rise to fame revivals in major cities and influence on American religion and culture in the Jazz Age The biographer takes the reader behind the scenes of Aimee's fame to the early days of her harsh apprenticeship in revival tents failed marriages and poverty Barfoot recreates the career of this called and driven woman through oral history church documents and by a creative use of new source material Written with warmth and often as dramatic as Aimee herself the author successfully captures not only what made Aimee famous but also what transformed Pentecostalism from its meager Azusa Street mission beginnings into a transnational global religion

Big Basin Redwood Forest: California's Oldest State Park Traci Bliss ,2021 The epic saga of Big Basin began in the late 1800s when the surrounding communities saw their once inexhaustible redwood forests vanishing Expanding railways demanded timber as they crisscrossed the nation but the more redwoods that fell to the woodman's axe the greater the effects on the local climate California's groundbreaking environmental movement attracted individuals from every walk of life From the adopted son of a robber baron to a bohemian woman winemaker to a Jesuit priest resilient campaigners produced an unparalleled model of citizen action Join author Traci Bliss as she reveals the untold story of a herculean effort to preserve the ancient redwoods for future generations

educators and cultural workers have examined dominant discourses of childhood using critical feminist and other postmodern perspectives Located in a variety of disciplines these poststructural deconstructive and even postcolonial critiques have challenged everything from notions of the universal child to adult child dualisms to deterministic developmental theory The purpose of this volume is to acknowledge the profound contributions of that large body of literature while demonstrating the ways that critical analyses can be used to generate avenues actions that increase possibilities for social justice for those who are younger while at the same time avoiding determinism In this time of globalization hyper capitalism and discourses that would control and disqualify through constructions like accountability we believe that projects such as this are of utmost importance The volume is divided into four major sections to reflect the multiplicity of human voices and perspectives section I contemporary circumstances and dominant discourses within which we all attempt to function sections II and III and the generation of new possibilities for constructing relationships together section IV Finally a voice from the heart within a reconceptualist social science agenda for early childhood studies is presented

Frontier Cities Jay Gitlin, Barbara Berglund, Adam Arenson, 2012-12-18 Macau New Orleans St Louis Pittsburgh and San Francisco All of these metropolitan centers were once frontier cities urban areas irrevocably shaped by cross cultural borderland beginnings Spanning a wide range of periods and locations and including stories of eighteenth century Detroit nineteenth century Seattle and twentieth century Los Angeles Frontier Cities recovers the history of these urban places and shows how from the start natives and newcomers alike shared streets buildings and interwoven lives Not only do frontier cities embody the earliest matrix of the American urban experience they also testify to the intersections of colonial urban western and global history The twelve essays in this collection paint compelling portraits of frontier cities and their inhabitants the French traders who bypassed imperial regulations by throwing casks of brandy over the wall to Indian customers in eighteenth century Montreal Isaac Friedlander San Francisco s Grain King and Adrien de Pauger who designed the Vieux Carr in New Orleans Exploring the economic and political networks imperial ambitions and personal intimacies of frontier city development this collection demonstrates that these cities followed no mythic line of settlement nor did they move lockstep through a certain pace or pattern of evolution An introduction puts the collection in historical context and the epilogue ponders the future of frontier cities in the midst of contemporary globalization With innovative concepts and a rich selection of maps and images Frontier Cities imparts a crucial untold chapter in the construction of urban history and place
