Media,2022-05-22T22:59:00Z Please note This is a companion version not the original book Sample Book Insights 1 The earthquake in Ecuador in 1906 was the most powerful ever recorded by the machines of man It destroyed the island port of Tumaco and killed as many as 2 000 people 2 There were several large earthquakes in the Caribbean in the 1970s and they did not kill anyone But they did trigger a burst of smaller earthquakes which went on for two or three weeks The island of St Lucia was designated an earthquake prone territory 3 The eruption of Mount Vesuvius in 1906 was the most severe in Europe for 300 years The villages of Bosco Trecase San Giuseppe Ottajano Poggiomarino and Somma were all covered in several feet of ash and some had to be hastily abandoned 4 The most active year of the twentieth century was 1906 which was characterized by a series of earthquakes in major cities The year was also the most seismically dangerous of the century

Ruth Asawa and the Artist-Mother at Midcentury Jordan Troeller,2025-07-01 How a group of artist mothers in postwar San Francisco refused the centuries old belief that a woman could not make art while also raising children For most of modern history to be an artist and a mother was to embody a contradiction in terms This awful dichotomy as painter Alice Neel put it pitted artmaking against caretaking and argued that the best art was made at the expense of family and futurity But in San Francisco in the 1950s and 1960s a group of artists gathered around Ruth Asawa 1926 2013 began to reject this dominant narrative In Ruth Asawa and the Artist Mother at Midcentury Jordan Troeller analyzes this remarkable moment Insisting that their labor as mothers fueled their labor as artists these women redefined key aesthetic concerns of their era including autonomy medium specificity and originality Delving into the archive where the traces of motherhood have not yet been erased from official history Troeller reveals Ruth Asawa s personal and professional dialogue with several other artist mothers including Merry Renk Imogen Cunningham and Sally Woodbridge For these women motherhood was not an essentialized identity but rather a means to reimagine the terms of artmaking outside of the patriarchal policing of reproduction This project unfolded in three broad areas which also structure the book s chapters domesticity and decoration metaphors for creativity and maternal labor in the public sphere especially in the public schools Drawing on queer theory and feminist writings Troeller argues that in belatedly accounting for the figure of the artist mother art history must reckon with an emergent paradigm of artmaking one predicated on reciprocity caretaking and futurity
