The Greatest Story Never Told Through My Eyes 'Eden' Melodie J. Dobbins, 2007-11-08 Science Fiction Romance Before the Devinci Code Before Jesus was the story of Adam Eve In the beginning God created the Heavens and the Earth This may be true but did God first create man on Earth I don't think so Earth was colonized by a group of explorers Through the eyes of an old man the story is told A more plausible story that explains everything including how man evolved on Earth how religion really got started and how we all came to be Many of the situations and sub stories are based on actual fact Could this be how we really started

The Transformation Robin Buckallew, 2012-08-01 She works for the government by day She works against the government by night Until one day she finds herself in the hands of the Interrogators a not so secret torture team that maintains rigid order in an increasingly chaotic world With a proud heritage of strength and independence to draw on will Typha have what it takes to survive After the Transformation the government is left in the hands of a council of elders who govern according to their interpretation of the Bible Women regarded as little more than breeding machines return to the kitchen and the bedroom where they reproduce so rapidly that all the world's ecosystems are being threatened with extinction As the world goes mad around them a brave group of men and women go underground determined to fight for what they believe even if it means war An epic clash between church and state unites two scientists linked by blood and their love of freedom The future of the species is in their hands

Haptic Allegories Kathleen Gough, 2013-11-07 Kinship and Performance in the Black and Green Atlantic advances an innovative and compelling approach to writing comparative studies of performance in transnational intercultural relation to one another Its chosen subject in this case is the cultural and political intersection of African and Irish diasporic peoples and movements Gough approaches her subject via five key flashpoints in Black Green relations moving from the mid nineteenth century to the early twenty first century In turn each of these is related to mediums of performance that were prevalent at the time such as abolitionist oratory and melodrama photography and tableaux architecture and folk drama television and political demonstrations and visual art and dramaturgy By examining the unlikely kinship between social actors such as Ida B Wells and Maud Gonne Lady Augusta Gregory and Zora Neale Hurston and Bernadette Devlin and Alice Childress along with a host of old and new theatrical characters this book explores how a transmedial investigation of gender community and performance allows for a revision of historiography in Atlantic studies while the study itself revises and reimagines key concepts central to performance studies In 2014 Kinship and Performance was given the Errol Hill Award for Outstanding Scholarship in African American Theatre from the American Society for Theatre Research
