Stories of Mother Goose Village Madge Alford Bigham, 1903 A collection of short stories for children which uses character names from well known fables and poems The Greek Connection James H. Barron, 2020-07-13 Spanning from WWII to the Cold War and beyond this is the magnificent triumphant biography of the investigative journalist resistance fighter and whistle blower who helped expose the Watergate scandal Doris Kearns Goodwin author of Leadership He was one of the most fascinating figures in 20th century political history Yet today Elias Demetracopoulos is strangely overlooked even though his life reads like an epic adventure story As a precocious twelve year old in occupied Athens he engaged in heroic resistance efforts against the Nazis for which he was imprisoned and tortured After his life was miraculously spared he became an investigative journalist covering Greece's tumultuous politics and America's increasing influence in the region A clever and scoop hungry reporter Elias soon gained access to powerful figures in both governments and attracted many enemies When the Greek military dictatorship took power in 1967 he narrowly escaped to Washington DC where he would lead the fight to restore democracy in his homeland while running afoul of the American government too Now after a decade of research and original reporting James H Barron uncovers the story of a man whose tireless pursuit of uncomfortable truths would put him at odds with not only his own government but that of the Truman Eisenhower Kennedy Johnson Nixon Ford Carter and Reagan administrations making him a target of CIA FBI and State Department surveillance and harassment and Greek kidnapping and assassination plots American authorities may have purposefully overlooked A stunning feat of biographic storytelling sweeping from World War II to the Cold War Watergate and beyond The Greek Connection is about a lifetime of standing up for democracy and a free press against powerful special interests It has much to teach us about our own era's abuses of power dark money journalist intimidation and foreign interference in elections Bulletin Michigan.
