Javier, William G. Herron, 2018-08-10 Understanding Domestic Violence not only highlights and reexamines the different challenges that we continue to face in effectively addressing issues of domestic violence but provides innovated approaches to interventions that are more in keeping with the complex nature of domestic violence This book provides a comprehensive and multifaceted examination of conditions and factors involved in domestic violence including psychological sociocultural sociopolitical and socioeconomic issues The authors look at domestic violence through the trauma lens and intersectionality to develop intervention strategies within that context Statistics and clinical examples from the field highlight unique culturally based issues related to domestic violence among Latino African American and Arab Muslim communities issues with woman perpetrators and violence in the LGBTQ community to name a few In the end Understanding Domestic Violence offers opportunities for the reader to engage in further discussion of the poignant issues discussed in the book with the invitation to become part of the solution The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History Bonnie G. Smith, 2008 The Encyclopedia of Women in World History captures the experiences of women throughout world history in a comprehensive 4 volume work Although there has been extensive research on women in history by region no text or reference work has comprehensively covered the role women have played throughout world history. The past thirty years have seen an explosion of research and effort to present the experiences and contributions of women not only in the Western world but across the globe Historians have investigated womens daily lives in virtually every region and have researched the leadership roles women have filled across time and region They have found and demonstrated that there is virtually no historical social or demographic change in which women have not been involved and by which their lives have not been affected The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History benefits greatly from these efforts and experiences and illuminates how women worldwide have influenced and been influenced by these historical social and demographic changes The Encyclopedia contains over 1 250 signed articles arranged in an A Z format for ease of use The entries cover six main areas biographies geography and history comparative culture and society including adoption abortion performing arts organizations and movements such as the Egyptian Uprising and the Paris Commune womens and gender studies and topics in world history that include slave trade globalization and disease With its rich and insightful entries by leading scholars and experts this reference work is sure to be a valued go to resource for scholars college and high school students and general readers alike Encyclopedia of the Modern Middle East & North Africa: Sh-Z, Index Philip Mattar, 2004 Contains entries that provide information about significant people places and events in the history of the Middle East and North Africa since 1800 arranged alphabetically from Shammar to Zurayk with maps genealogies a glossary and an index Reference Guide to Africa Alfred Kagan, Atoma Batoma, 2014-10-16 This third edition of the Reference Guide to Africa explains the most important resources for the study of the continent of Africa It contains a general sources section and a larger disciplinary oriented section All sources are annotated A new edition is sorely needed since the last edition was published nine years ago The previous editions have been successfully used in research libraries worldwide since 1999 and it has been used to teach several African studies research courses The book provides an orientation for researching almost any topic in the arts humanities and social sciences concerning the continent of Africa and all of its countries and ethnic groups The first part explains and lists portals databases bibliographies indexes guides encyclopedias country sources biography primary sources government publications and statistics The second part presents 16 subject oriented chapters mostly in the arts humanities and social sciences from agriculture and food security to women studies It covers sources that broadly cover the continent or in some cases only North Africa and the Middle East It generally excludes sources limited to one country or region of Africa except for North Africa because of the nature of the literature One third of the sources in this edition are new and nearly half of them are available in electronic format There are author title and subject indexes This unique work is intended for students teachers librarians and researchers It likely will be used most by reference librarians and teachers for students in high school through graduate studies It will also be used independently by undergraduate and graduate students It can be used to answer simple reference questions provide the resources for an undergraduate paper or for comprehensive work by advanced students and researchers The Greenwood Encyclopedia of World Popular Culture Gary Hoppenstand, 2007 An encyclopedia describes all aspects of world culture broken down into six regional categories discussing the art dance fashion food pastimes periodicals recreation and transportation of each region Encyclopedia of Women & Islamic Cultures Suad Joseph, Afsāna Naģmābādī, 2003 Family Body Sexuality and Health is Volume III of the Encyclopedia of Women Islamic Cultures In almost 200 well written entries it covers the broad field of family body sexuality and health and Ethnocultural Perspectives on Disaster and Trauma Anthony J.
