This important study posits a new way of understanding how ordinary Black people used the 30 years following the civil rights movement to forge a new political reality for themselves and their country While following national trends closely it focuses particularly on the political environment of Sacramento California from 1970 to 2000 Having a racial profile that is remarkably similar to the nation s demographics as a whole Sacramento serves as a useful national proxy on the racial question Unlike most studies of Black politics over the era this text pays close attention to minor actors in the political process yet places them within the context of the larger political world We see for example the local effects of the War on Poverty the Harold Washington mayoral campaigns the Rainbow Coalition the Million Man March and the great increases in locally appointed and elected Black officials within the context of similar campaigns and movements nationwide      Callaloo ,1990      U.S. Imprints on Sub-Saharan Africa ,1992      Publishers Directory ,1994      African-American Literature Paul Q.
