The Dig Poems By Lynn Emanuel:

The Dig ; And, Hotel Fiesta Lynn Emanuel, 1994 This volume combines two previously published books The Dig 1992 University of Illinois Press and Hotel Fiesta 1984 University of Georgia Press A prose poem has been added as a prologue

The Dig Lynn Emanuel, 1992 Then, Suddenly-- Lynn Emanuel, 1999-09-28 Finalist for ForeWord Magazine's 1999 Poetry Book of the Year A reader and a writer don their respective roles and embark on the journey of a book This is their story ultimately a love story darkly funny mournful testy It is about a reader who at times presides over the page like a god and at others follows the leash of the author's voice through the dark streets of the book like a dog and it is about a writer of determined slipperiness As we read we think that each of us is The Reader the one who knows the Real Story But the more we think we understand the more the story moves away from us all is not what it seems This eagerly awaited third volume by the poet whose work The New York Times described as at once charmed and frightening is a book of high spirited subversiveness a work of argument seduction and a relentless devotion to language Then Suddenly bristles with the sound of the author's voice insistent vital hilarious and iconoclastic tearing away at the confinement of the page and at the distance between the page and the reader Emanuel's images are dazzling She creates a performance that is fearsome and funny in its portrayal of the argument between the work of the text and the world of the body The Gettysburg Review has called her a writer of exquisite craftsmanship who can strike from language images chiseled clean as bas relief Then Suddenly is a book of spectacle and verve part elegy part vaudeville

Noose and Hook Lynn Emanuel, 2010-03-14 I have long believed that Lynn Emanuel is one of the most innovative and subversive poets now writing in America Her aesthetic and artistic choices consistently invoke a complex hybrid poetics that radically reimagines the shape of our poetic discourse The brilliant shattering and disturbing poems of Noose and Hook are not only wry critiques of recent poetic and cultural activity in this country but also compelling signposts to what yet might be possible in our future This is Lynn Emanuel's most exquisite and powerful book yet David St John

To Us, All Flowers are Roses Lorna Goodison, 1995 A collection of poems focusing on the culture and people of the Caribbean

Poetry from Sojourner Ruth Lepson, 2004 Collection of poems from 25 years of Sojourner For much of its history Sojourner was the most widely circulated feminist literary journal in America and more than 1 200 poems have appeared in its pages since it began publication in 1975 Nearly 150 of those poems are collected in this volume where together they form a powerful testament to the vibrancy wit and diversity of feminist poetry In addition to works by such well known poets as Molly Peacock Nikki Giovanni Betsy Sholl and Adrienne Rich this collection includes poems by women from a host of different backgrounds including many whose work appeared in print for the first time in Sojourner Some of these poems explode with energy others speak with a haiku like softness some discuss love lust and sexuality while others deal with loss divorce and revenge The voices collected here are old and young rural and urban straight and gay from mothers and daughters to wives lovers and countless others all contributing to this anthology's wide ranging conversation about feminism and feminist poetics Hammer and Blaze Ellen Bryant Voigt, Heather McHugh, 2002 Hammer and Blaze provides a true cross section of the best contemporary poets writing in North America today Editors Ellen Bryant Voigt and Heather McHugh have brought together the work of sixty poets who have taught at the Warren Wilson MFA Program for Writers one of the most respected and influential writing programs of its kind The stellar group of contributors includes MacArthur fellows Campbell McGrath Anne Carson Edward Hirsch Eleanor Wilner Susan Stewart and Lucia Perillo Also represented here are works by Pulitzer Prize winners Stephen Dunn and Louise Glück Ruth Lilly Prize winner Carl Dennis and Robert Wrigley Thomas Lux and B H Fairchild winners of the Kingsley Tufts Award From the couplets of Pablo Medina to the neoclassical lyricisms of Carl Phillips this anthology appropriately reflects the cross cultural nature of contemporary North American poetry with its most diverse and prestigious voices A number of the poems are previously unpublished including work by Joan Aleshire Stuart Dischell Stephen Dobyns Stephen Dunn Roland Flint Carol Frost Barbara Greenberg Edward Hirsch Pablo Medina Steve Orlen Gregory Orr Kathleen Peirce Kenneth Rosen Daniel Tobin Alan Williamson and Eleanor Wilner Hammer and Blaze a gathering of our best poets should garner attention from the literary world at large as well as from students of contemporary poetry and creative writing Saints of Hysteria David Trinidad, Denise Duhamel, Maureen Seaton, 2007-03-06 Collaborative poetry poems written by one or more people grew out of word games played by French surrealists in the 1920s It was taken up a decade later by Japan's Vou Club and then by Charles Henri Ford who created the chainpoem composed by poets who mailed their lines all over the world After WW II the Beat writers collaborative experiments resulted in the famous Pull My Daisy The concept was embraced in the 1970s by feminist poets as a way to find a collective female voice Yet for all its rich history virtually no collections of collaborative poetry exist This exhilarating anthology remedies the omission Featured are poems by two four even as many as 18 people in a dizzying array of forms villanelles to ghazals sonnets to somonkas pantoums to haiku even quizzes questionnaires and other nonliterary forms Collaborators notes accompany many of the poems giving a fascinating glimpse into the creative process

Manderley Rebecca Wolff, 2010-10-01 Selected by Robert Pinsky as one of five volumes published in 2001 in the National Poetry Series In the Manderley of Rebecca Daphne du Maurier's forbidding haven of mocking ghosts and secrets that refuse to remain buried nothing is as it seems So in this stunning debut collection by Rebecca Wolff cities partners mothers sisters friends and perfect strangers all disguise their true faces while they who seek connection are transported from one great gaping hole in the fabric of our knowledge to another No passage is too dark no garden too tangled for the troubled dreamer of Manderley Wolff turns a quicksilver gaze on a fluid world where both the real and the imaginary are transfigured Tempering steely candor with a sophisticated delight in wordplay these poems turn on a dime from the sensual to the eerie the resigned to the hopeful the comforting to the shocking Each poem weaves together layers of dream remembrance and fantasy distilling from romantic excess a gritty spare language of truth telling and surprise Some Jazz a While Miller

Williams, 1998 Here one of our best loved poets gathers his most representative work from twelve collections and adds some new pieces as well An American original Miller Williams involves the readers emotions and imagination with an effective illusion of plain talk continually rediscovering what is vital and musical in the language we speak and imagine by

Whispering the Techniques of Language: An Psychological Journey through The Dig Poems By Lynn Emanuel

In a digitally-driven world where screens reign great and immediate conversation drowns out the subtleties of language, the profound techniques and psychological nuances hidden within words usually get unheard.
