the West Wynn Wilcox, 2010 This sound interpretation of Vietnamese cultural attitudes contends that a major reason for American difficulties in Viet Nam has been the failure to appreciate how wide the gulf is between Viet Nam and the West Professor Smith first describes Vietnamese political and social traditions and shows how they were challenged by the West after 1858 He examines Viet Nam's search for independence and modernization in the first half of this century contrasts the two governments of the partitioned country during the years 1954-1963 and stresses the critical need to reassess attitudes toward Viet Nam His sophisticated ambitious survey of Viet Nam history will have a lasting value that sets it apart from the scores of ephemeral books on this country

The Indonesian Supreme Court Sebastiaan Pompe, 2018-05-31 Since the fall of Indonesian president Suharto a major focus of the country's reformers has been the corrupt and inefficient judicial system Within the context of a history of the Supreme Court in post independence Indonesia Sebastiaan Pompe analyzes the causes of the judiciary's failure over the last five decades This study provides an essential background for those seeking to understand why legal reform has been so slow and frustrating in the post 1998 period

Dependent Communities Caroline Hughes, 2018-05-31 Dependent Communities investigates the political situations in contemporary Cambodia and East Timor where powerful international donors intervened following deadly civil conflicts This comparative analysis critiques international policies that focus on rebuilding state institutions to accommodate the global market In addition it explores the dilemmas of politicians in Cambodia and East Timor who struggle to satisfy both wealthy foreign benefactors and constituents at home groups whose interests frequently conflict Hughes argues that the policies of Western aid organizations tend to stifle active political engagement by the citizens of countries that have been torn apart by war The neoliberal ideology promulgated by United Nations administrations and other international NGOs advocates state sovereignty but in fact sovereignty is too flimsy a foundation for effective modern democratic politics The result is an oppressive peace that tends to rob survivors and former resistance fighters of their agency and aspirations for genuine postwar independence In her study of these two cases Hughes demonstrates that the clientelist strategies of Hun Sen Cambodia's postwar leader have created a shadow network of elites and their followers that has been comparatively effective in serving the country's villages even though so often coercive and corrupt East Timor's postwar leaders on the other hand have alienated voters by attempting to follow the guidelines of the donors closely and ignoring the immediate needs and voices of the people Dependent Communities offers a searing analysis of contemporary international aid strategies based on the author's years of fieldwork in Cambodia and East Timor

Feasting and Social Oscillation A. Thomas Kirsch, 2018-05-31 This work argues that anthropologists have observed and recorded religious rites and rituals but have largely ignored the role of religion when constructing an analytical framework The author contends that religious phenomena are inextricably intertwined with issues of power politics and economics among the upland groups such as the Kachin of Southeast Asia
