La Vie Rêvée Des Anges (The Dreamlife of Angels) Mark David Lee, 2002 In Search of Cinema Bert Cardullo, 2004 In Search of Cinema chronicles the vitality of international film art in the last two decades At a time when the movie review has degenerated into mere publicity for Hollywood pictures and film scholarship has become entangled in its own pseudo scientific discourse Bert Cardullo reclaims the territory of a certain type of film critic somewhere between a reviewer journalist and a scholar theorist With elegance clarity and rigour he offers close readings of individual films to show how moviemakers use the resources of the medium to pursue complex significant human goals The essays collected here reflect the spectacular rise of Iranian cinema in recent years as well as the strong contributions of contemporary filmmakers from countries such as Belgium Canada China Israel Lebanon Scotland and Spain But In Search of Cinema does not neglect the best recent films from major film producing nations like the United States France and Italy and includes retrospective pieces on the careers of Ingmar Bergman and Woody Allen as well as several essays on the interrelationship between film form or film genres and drama and the novel the two forms from which the cinema continues to draw a wealth of its material

Miraculous Realism Niels Niessen, 2020-03-01 At the 1999 Cannes Film Festival two movies from northern Francophone Europe swept almost all the main awards Rosetta by the Walloon directors Jean Pierre and Luc Dardenne won the Golden Palm and L humanit by the French director Bruno Dumont won the Grand Prize both won acting awards as well Taking this miracle of Cannes as the point of departure Niels Niessen identifies a transregional film movement in the French Belgian border region the Cin ma du Nord or cinema of the North He examines this movement within the contexts of French and Belgian national cinemas from the silent era to the digital age as well as that of the new realist tendency in world cinema of the last three decades In addition he traces from a northern perspective a secular religious tradition in Francophone European film and philosophy from Bresson and Pialat via Bazin Deleuze and Godard to the Dardennes and Dumont while critiquing this tradition for its frequent use of a humanist vocabulary of grace for a secular world Once a cradle of the Industrial Revolution the Franco Belgian Nord faced economic crisis for most of the twentieth century Miraculous Realism demonstrates that the Cin ma du Nord s rise to prominence resulted from the region s endeavor to reinvent itself economically and culturally at the crossroads of Europe after decades of recession
