The Classical Greek Reader Kenneth John Atchity, Rosemary McKenna, 1998 The wonders of the Greek world are presented in a modern accessible manner perfect for those looking to refresh their acquaintance with the classics and for those who have yet to explore the exciting intellectual energy of ancient Greece Atchity focuses not only on the big names but also on the less familiar voices the women doctors storytellers herbalists and romance writers of the time 43 photos

Munere mortis Eftychia Bathrellou, Margherita Maria Di Nino, 2022-10-31 Colin Austin 1941 2010 Professor of Greek at Cambridge and distinguished editor of poetic texts was renowned for the precision and brilliance of his scholarship This collection of studies offered by some of his pupils aims to honor his memory The papers combine philology and textual criticism with a strong interest in setting the works under examination in their literary and cultural context Individual contributions are devoted to the establishment of the text of the comic poet Menander and the epigrammatist Posidippus of Pella while one chapter offers a new critical edition of and the first detailed commentary on a number of erotic epigrams Other essays explore poetic performative and narratological features in Socratic works of Plato and Xenophon The volume also includes an analysis of the trope of pathetic fallacy in the bucolic poem Epitaph for Bion and a study of the concept of frigidity in ancient literary criticism

Archeologies of Invective Robert G. Eisenhauer, 2007 Focusing on specimens of discourse where criticism assumes a flagrantly bucolic persona Archeologies of Invective investigates hitherto little acknowledged contexts of irony aggressivity and vilification After considering briefly Lucilius and Horace the author evaluates such diverse figures as Poggio Bracciolini Quevedo Dunbar Poe and Mencken before proceeding to sustained discussion of Goethe's Italian Journey Werther and the Invektiven In terms of prime time satiric virtuosity Byron's Don Juan recycles pastoral animus acting as a rogue like mirror text of the Schiller Goethe Xenien of the late 1790s Sidney's double sestina and Villon's Ballad of the Women of Paris are seen inaugurating the modern age while at the dawn of the avant garde Verlaine's Invectives sample Goethean and Villonesque attitude at a new level of research vulgarity Low and Highbrow outlaw and Philistine resurface in Wyndham Lewis's Arcadian perspective on the artist intellectual Poets Robert Frost and Theodore Enslin are seen reinvigorating the edgily agrest scene of invective in America Archeologies of Invective situates itself also with respect to a psychohistorical terrain altered states of consciousness reflecting Faustian transition the dislocation of the peasant class the empowerment of women as a heterological state within a state the advent of modern weaponry and the rise of alcohol whose genealogy becomes nothing short of a gin ecology Stable notions of character give way to impersonal pantomimic terms of art such as caliber the hero is displaced by the wanderer thief madman and clown Not limiting itself to the literary canon Archeologies includes analyses of gangster films and sports legends in the context of Arcadian motivation Finally Eisenhauer places Philip Roth's American Pastoral within the arc of 19th century pastoral fiction locating a prosaic Nowadays in which criticism is still inscribed as evidenced by Fish's explication of pastoral in the context
