The Early Church And The State Sources Of Early Christian Thought:

The Early Church and the State Agnes Cunningham,1982 Caesar and the Lamb, Second Edition George Kalantzis,2025-05-30 Through the available patristic writings Caesar and the Lamb focuses on the attitudes of the earliest Christians on war and military service Kalantzis provides the reader with many new translations of pre Constantinian texts and tells the story of the struggle of the earliest church to bear witness to the nations that enveloped them as they transformed the dominant narratives of citizenship loyalty freedom power and control Kalantzis examines writings on war and military service in the first three centuries of the Christian church in an organized manner but the ways the communities of Christ at the margins of power and society thought of themselves and the state are not presented here through the lens of antiquarian curiosity At the heart of Caesar and the Lamb is a desire to understand the world in which Christianity arose and to ask questions of the past that may help us understand the early character of the Christian faith with the hope that such an enterprise will also help us evaluate its expression in our own time A Biblical Theology of Material Possessions Gene A. Getz,2012-04-01 Some researchers estimate that evangelical Christians give an average of 2 percent of their income to further the kingdom of God Such a practice reveals a theology of material possessions that is clearly out of line with God's Word Gene Getz in an extensive search reveals intriguing detailed information on the subject of material possessions based on Scripture The synthesis of this and selected extrabiblical literature resulted in the formation of more than 120 biblical principles that can be applied by any person in any culture Dr Getz not only shares these principles but offers guidance for church leaders and laypeople who want to apply them in their church Religion, Authority, and the State Leo D. Lefebure,2016-08-03 In commemoration of Constantine's grant of freedom of religion to Christians this wide ranging volume examines the ambiguous legacy of this emperor in relation to the present world discussing the perennial challenges of relations between religions and governments The authors examine the new global ecumenical movement inspired by Pentecostals the role of religion in the Irish Easter rebellion against the British and the relation between religious freedom and government in the United States Other essays debate the relation of Islam to the violence in Nigeria the place of the family in church state relations in the Philippines the role of confessional identity in the political struggles in the Balkans and the construction of Slavophile identity in nineteenth century Russian Orthodox political theology The volume also investigates the contrast between written constitutions and actual practice in the relations between governments and religions in Australia Indonesia and Egypt The case studies and surveys illuminate both specific contexts and also widespread currents in religion state relations across the world A Woman's Place Carolyn Osiek,2009-12-01 This focused look at women in the household context discusses the importance of issues of space and visibility in shaping the lives of early Christian women Several aspects of women's everyday existence are investigated including the lives of wives widows women with children female slaves women as patrons household leaders and teachers In addition several key themes emerge hospitality dining practices and the extent of female segregation Evangelicals and Tradition (Evangelical Ressourcement) D. H. Williams, 2005-06-01 The past few years have seen a growing interest among evangelical leaders in the thought and life of the early Christian church There is a desire to rediscover historical roots in the face of today's postmodern and increasingly post denominational world Evangelicals and Tradition is the first in a valuable new series of books edited by D H Williams The series seeks to help today's church leaders recover the early church fathers' ancient understandings of Christian belief and practice for application to ministry in the twenty first century This first book traces the development and role of tradition in the early church what kind of authority should be ascribed to tradition and tradition's interaction with the Protestant hallmarks of Scripture alone and by faith alone The Early Church Thomas Arthur Robinson, 1993 A nontechnical informed survey of recent scholarly debate on major topics important to an understanding of the early church for students and interested laypersons Divided into five general and twenty topical chapters each with a short introductory essay the bibliography contains abstracts of some 1 000 books and major articles dealing with the church from the beginning of the second century roughly to the end of the sixth Most abstracts are followed by a list of book reviews enabling users to gain to a wider evaluation of the work in question Thoroughly cross referenced and extensively indexed Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress, 2013 The Fathers Refounded Elizabeth A. Clark, 2019-02-01 In the early twentieth century a new generation of liberal professors sought to prove Christianity's compatibility with contemporary currents in the study of philosophy science history and democracy These modernizing professors Arthur Cushman McGiffert at Union Theological Seminary George LaPiana at Harvard Divinity School and Shirley Jackson Case at the University of Chicago Divinity School hoped to equip their students with a revisionary version of early Christianity that was embedded in its social historical and intellectual settings In The Fathers Refounded Elizabeth A Clark provides the first critical analysis of these figures' lives scholarship and lasting contributions to the study of Christianity The Fathers Refounded continues the exploration of Christian intellectual revision begun by Clark in Founding the Fathers Early Church History and Protestant Professors in Nineteenth Century America Drawing on rigorous archival research Clark takes the reader through the professors' published writings their institutions and even their classrooms where McGiffert tailored nineteenth century German Protestant theology to his modernist philosophies where LaPiana the first Catholic professor at Harvard Divinity School devised his modernism against the tight constraints of contemporary Catholic theology and where Case promoted reading Christianity through social scientific aims and methods Each in his own way extricated his subfield from denominationally and theologically oriented approaches and aligned it with secular historical methodologies In so doing this generation of scholars fundamentally altered the directions of Catholic Modernism and Protestant Liberalism and offered the promise of reconciling Christianity and modern intellectual and social culture
