the Bad, and the Undead Chris Morrill, 2002-12-09. Vampires have secretly grown wealthy behind the scenes for centuries involved in monumental tasks such as overthrowing governments and mundane ones like running local strip clubs. But instead of viewing things from afar, they like to plunging headfirst into debauchery themselves. In modern times, the sexy unofficial vampire boss gets in deep trouble after her group's move to St. Louis. Along with her right-hand vamp, Scummy, who battles an eternal hangover, an everlasting erection, and extreme lack of couch and a cast of other assorted degenerates, they must prepare for one last battle against an old antagonist from days past. None of this is made easier by the training of new rookie vampire, a local St. Louis hoosier along the way. Imagine if vampires were far more human than anyone gives them credit for, but too rich, too bored, and too immortal to play by any of the rules. The Good, the Bad, and the Dirty

Laundry Leslie Dawes, 2012-09-11. The Good, The Bad, and The Dirty Laundry challenges our walk with the Lord by taking an everyday task, laundry, and applying it to biblical teachings, which then move us to a deeper, more meaningful Christian life. Through daily Bible passages, in Esther, good and bad character traits are discovered and discussed with the prayer that the lessons will then be applied to our lives to help others see Jesus in and through us. She's a warrior, my friend, Leslie, living life moment by moment and in God's power. She invites God into every facet of her life, from loving her husband, raising and encouraging her children, to celebrating and pouring into family and friends. Her strategic prayer life and her close relationship with Jesus Christ continues to be her strength as she listens to God for answers in all circumstances, both good and bad. Leslie embraces the motto for such a time as this, leveraging her divine placement and appointment in her corner of the world, all to the glory of God. My soul-level friend teaches from a heart of integrity, and she longs to shepherd God's people, walking with them in the word to a place of transformation, redemption, and victory. She loves large lives, big and laughs often.

She has certainly been a sister in Christ who has made my life worth the journey She's real a sojourner who walks the talk Leslie is a beautiful person a lovely soul my dear friend and lover of the Lord Cheryle Jagers Coordinator of Women's Ministry First Baptist Hendersonville TN
