The Gospel and Human Destiny Vilmos Vajta, 1971-01-01      The Gospels in Islamic Context Georgina L. Jardim, Ida Glaser, Shirin Shafaie, 2025-09-30 Bringing together scholars from across the world this publication shows Christians and Muslims individually or together reading the canonical Gospels of the New Testament in conversation with Islamic texts and contexts In the discovery of meaning between text context and praxis this volume asks what are the texts doing in contexts as far flung as Indonesia the Hijaz of early Islam in Persian poetry of medieval times or modern Sunni interpretation in north America This second edited volume in the series Reading the Bible in Islamic Context continues the pioneering venture in contextual and intertextual reading It shows the richness of cooperative scholarship that results from reading the New Testament in Islamic context and exploring how the Gospel is understood in various religious traditions The Gospels in Islamic Context will be of interest to scholars students and practitioners encouraging them to explore new methods for taking into account intertextual factors as well as the history of Muslim Christian relations that arises from them It is a venture in which Muslims and Christians travel side by side and in conversation with each other although with significantly different perspectives and often different agendas      The Nature and Destiny of Man Reinhold Niebuhr, 1996-01-01 Thought to be Niebuhr's most significant work as well as one of the few great 20th century works of theology by an American writer considers human nature from a Christian perspective      The Gospel of John and the Other Three Gospels Rudolf Steiner, 2025-05-19 What is the Christ event It is a confluence of all preceding philosophies and religious streams of humanity united in Palestine and they were expressed in the Gospels according to the different types of initiation of the one or other Evangelist Rudolf Steiner Speaking two years after his main lecture course on the Gospel of John Rudolf Steiner discusses initiation traditions in the course of human history and how the Christ Event unified them all in particular those connected to the Western and Eastern mysteries In addition to esoteric interpretations of passages in the Gospels Steiner also presents many new and complementary insights on the world historic significance of Christ's mission including his initial reference to the Second Coming in the etheric realm Dense in content these thirteen lectures delivered to an audience at the Royal Swedish Academy of Science Stockholm enrich our understanding of Rudolf Steiner's Christology Only recently published in German and here in English for the first time the lectures are accompanied with an introduction by Hans Christian Zehner an appendix of photos and facsimiles extensive notes and an index The voice rose and the speaking took on a more rapid tempo while it flowed without stopping in perfectly formed beautiful sentences as only a born speaker can produce From a contemporary newspaper review Thirteen lectures Stockholm Jan 1910 GA 117a      The Theology of William Porcher DuBose Robert Boak Slocum, 2000 Recognized and appreciated as one of the most original and creative theologians in the Episcopal Church's history William Porcher DuBose 1836-1918 published seven books of theological importance including an autobiographical work and his life is commemorated in a lesser feast of the Episcopal Calendar of the Church Year Despite making significant contributions to Anglicanism DuBose's works are according to Robert Boak Slocum more widely honored than understood or applied to questions facing theologians and lay people today To fill the gap of knowledge and understanding Slocum's study of DuBose draws parallels between essential experiences in his life and major themes in his published theology

The Covenant Jakob Jocz, 1999-10-13 Why does God speak to human beings Is it to impart information Is it to unveil the secret of His Being Is it to pronounce judgment When we probe deeply into these questions the author contends we find that God does not speak to mortals simply to satisfy their curiosity or sense of guilt He speaks to his people in order to establish with them a personal covenantal relationship God reassures them He claims them for Himself He gives Himself to humankind He holds on to them as a Father to an unruly child The covenant as a theological category opens up the whole aspect of human destiny and puts mortals and creation in a new perspective This doctrine is so fundamental to theological reasoning the author argues that we may describe it as the axiom of biblical faith From this axiom he goes on to define such other biblical themes and doctrines as the relation between evil and sin the plan meaning and time of salvation the fall the cross and the sacraments the covenant as creation and as revelation history as a moral testing ground Christ as the End of time and the new age

A Grammar of Christian Faith Joe R. Jones, 2002 Volume II of A Grammar of Christian Faith aims to confront the widespread disarray in the language and practices of Christian faith today As a grammar it explains how Christian faith provides special ways of speaking and acting that make sense of human life by giving it meaning practicality and hope
