The Great British Picture Show From The 90s To The 70s

Jörg Helbig

The Great British Picture Show From The 90s To The 70s:

The Great British Picture Show George Perry, 1973 The Great British Picture Show George Perry, 1974 Suchen the daughter of a mapmaker goes on a journey through an enchanted land to find the king's son Re-Viewing British Cinema, 1900-1992 Wheeler W. Dixon, 1994-01-01 Re-Viewing British Cinema 1900-1992 is a collection of essays on British cinema history and practice. It offers both the casual reader and the film scholar a different view of British filmmaking during the past century. Arranged in chronological order, the book explores those areas of British cinema that have not been fully examined in other works and also offers fresh interpretations of a number of classic films. From the work of Frederic Villiers, the pioneering British newsreel cameraman who at the turn of the century brought home images of battlefield carnage to essays on the British B film and the long forgotten Independent Frame method of film production to new readings of classics such as The Red Shoes, Passport to Pimlico and Peeping Tom, the authors offer a look behind the scenes of the British film industry and engage the reader in some of the most compelling interpretational and historical issues of recent film history and critical theory. In addition, the volume contains a number of interviews with such key directors as Stephen Frears, Terence Davies, Wendy Toye and Lindsay Anderson and also pays particular attention to the work of early twentieth century British feminist filmmakers whose films have often been ignored by conventional film theory and history. It also offers new material on the British film noir, the English horror film and the pioneering gay director Brian Desmond Hurst. Taken as a whole, this book presents an entirely new series of viewpoints on British film practice, theory and reception and affords a fresh and vibrant view of the British film medium British Popular Films 1929-1939 Stephen Shafer, 2003-09-02 Challenges the conventional assumption that British feature films of the Thirties were oriented mostly towards the middle class and demonstrates that far from being alienated, working class men and women flocked to the cinema European Cinemas, European Societies Pierre Sorlin, 2004-06-19 First published in 2004, Routledge is an imprint of Taylor & Francis, an information company The British working class in postwar film Philip Gillett, 2019-01-04 An incidental pleasure of watching a film is what it tells us about the society in which it is made. Using a sociological model, The British working class in postwar film looks at how working class people were portrayed in British feature films in the decade after the Second World War. Though some of the films examined are well known, others have been forgotten and deserve reassessment. Original statistical data is used to assess the popularity of the films with audiences. With its interdisciplinary approach and the avoidance of jargon, this book seeks to broaden the approach to film studies. Students of media and cultural studies are introduced to the skills of other disciplines while sociologists and historians are encouraged to consider the value of film evidence in their own fields. This work should appeal to all readers interested in social history and in how cinema and society works Where the Boys are Murray Pomerance, Frances K. Gateward, 2005 A provocative contemporary anthology examining the construction of boys' identity in modern cinema Framed Elizabeth Carolyn Miller, 2009-12-21 By introducing us to the New Woman Criminal

Framed offers a profoundly different view of the fin de siècle British crime narrative Adult Themes Anne Etienne, Benjamin Halligan, Christopher Weedman, 2023-08-24 Between the late 1950s and mid 1970s British cinema experienced an explosion of X certificated films In parallel with an era marked by social political and sexual ferment and upheaval British filmmakers and censors pushed and guarded the permissible limits of violence horror revolt and sexuality on screen Adult Themes is the first volume entirely devoted to the exploration of British X certificate films across this transformative period since identified as the long 1960s How did the British Board of Film Censors harried on one side by the censorious and moralistic and beset on the other by demands for greater artistic freedom oversee and manage this provocative body of films How did the freedoms and restrictions of the X certificate hasten determine and reshape post war British cinema into an artistic exploitative and unapologetically adult medium Contributors to this collection consider these central questions as they take us to swinging parties on youthful crime sprees into local council meetings on police raids of cinemas and around Soho strip clubs and introduce us to mass murderers lesbian vampires apoplectic protestors eroticised middle aged women and rebellious working class men Adult Themes examines both the workings and negotiations of British film censorship the limits of artistic expression and a wider culture of X certificate cinema This is an important volume for students and scholars of British Film History and censorship Media Studies the 1960s and Cultural and Sexuality Studies while simultaneously an entertaining read for all connoisseurs of British cinema at its most vivid and scandalous Powell and Pressburger Andrew Moor, 2005-03-23 The film making partnership of Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger was one of the most remarkable and visionary in cinema They made an extraordinary range of films from The Spy in Black and The Life and Death of Colonel Blimp to A Canterbury Tale and The Red Shoes With champions like Martin Scorsese and Francis Ford Coppola and revived critical interest worldwide they now find new generations of admirers This illuminating new book looks closely at these classic films to explore their complex relationship to national identity and their interest in exile borderlands utopias escapism art and fantasy Moor reveals for example how the visual imagery of the films of the Second World War question current cinematic styles and how post war films like The Red Shoes and The Tales of Hoffman are in their highly expressive use of design music and dance utterly international in character E.A. Dupont and His Contribution to British Film Paul Matthew St. Pierre, 2010 John Perceval Traudi Allen, John Perceval, 1992-01-01 Attractively illustrated book which explores the life and career of this renowned Australian artist from the 1920s to the present Contains a catalogue raisonné list of principal exhibitions summary of biographical details and an extensive bibliography are included The hardback is a limited edition It Looks At You Wheeler W. Dixon, 1995-01-01 This is a study of the returned gaze from the cinema screen demonstrating that the films that we watch watch us guide us control our gaze and enforce societal codes A History of Film Jack C. Ellis, 1985 Geschichte des britischen Films Jörg Helbig, 2016-12-13 Die Britische Filmindustrie im Überblick Die Geschichte des britischen Films bietet eine umfassende

Darstellung der Entwicklung des britischen Spielfilms von den Anfängen in der Stummfilmzeit bis zu den Produktionen der 90er Jahre wie z.B. Vier Hochzeiten und ein Todesfall oder Trainspotting The Library Journal Book Review R. R.

Bowker LLC, 1977 Richard Attenborough Sally Dux, 2016-05-16 Richard Attenborough's film career has stretched across seven decades surprisingly Sally Dux's book is the first detailed scholarly analysis of his work as a filmmaker Concentrating on his work behind the camera she explores his initial role as a producer including his partnerships with Bryan Forbes in Beaver Films 1959-64 and with Allied Film Makers 1960-64 As we know Attenborough went on to direct twelve films many of which achieved great acclaim most notably Gandhi which won eight Academy Awards in 1982 Attenborough is most renowned for his biographical films including Young Winston Cry Freedom Chaplin and Shadowlands which helped to establish the genre within British cinema Although his work has often attracted controversy particularly regarding the representation of individuals and historical events his films are noted for extracting acclaimed performances from unknown actors such as Ben Kingsley Gandhi while maintaining his moral and thematic concerns Library Journal, 1975 Catalog of the Communications Library, University of Illinois University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

Library, 1975 Saluki Brian Patrick Duggan, 2014-01-10 One of the oldest known breeds of domesticated dogs the Saluki traveled throughout the Middle East with desert tribes who valued the dogs for their ability to hunt gazelles Famously painted on the walls of the Pharaohs' tombs the Saluki's history intrigued English dog enthusiasts who were instrumental in popularizing the breed and importing it to Europe and the United States in the early 20th century This book tells the story of those who brought the Saluki to the West most notably Florence Amherst who discovered the dogs while in Egypt and went on to breed 50 litters Other world travelers who fell under the Saluki's spell included Lady Anne Blunt Austen Layard and Gertrude Bell Also covered are lesser known Saluki aficionados mainly military officers who hunted with their hounds in Iraq Syria Palestine and Egypt and sought to replicate that experience at home
