The Great Canadian Anecdote Contest:

The Great Canadian Anecdote Contest George Woodcock,1991 These stories prove that truth is indeed stranger than fiction The Great Canadian Outbreaks Nevio Cimolai,2018-03-12 What do a rowing coach lawyer First Nation s aboriginal hockey manager business woman and medical resident have in common The Great Canadian Outbreaks How many infectious outbreaks will you experience in a lifetime How do Canadians behave during an outbreak and how do they respond thereafter The Great Canadian Outbreaks presents ten short stories each depicting a unique infectious outbreak from across Canada in various historic times These fictional vignettes capture the essence of factual events as diverse as the social fabric of our country Each story is followed by a lay description of the pertinent science and epidemiology in these outbreak scenarios We live in a microbial world where there is ample opportunity for human infection If our flavour as a nation can be captured by great Canadian bacon or curling or wheat or beer or hockey what would we be without The Great Canadian Outbreaks

Terrors of the Night John Robert Colombo,2005-10-29 Terrors of the Night is a collection of more than 100 accounts of eerie events and weird experiences that have been recorded by Canadians over the last 400 years These incredible accounts come from all parts of the country and concern witchcraft peculiar weather conditions wild beasts hardly human creatures omens prophecies powers beyond ours miraculous cures and bizarre behaviour generally The narratives often in the words of witnesses themselves are taken from the columns of old newspapers journals and correspondence It is an engrossing and unsettling experience to read these stories because the reader keeps asking the question Could such things happen 2009
