The Cooperstown Symposium on Baseball and American Culture, 2001 William M. Simons, 2002-04-15 This is an anthology of 23 papers that were presented at the Thirteenth Cooperstown Symposium on Baseball and American Culture held June 6-8 2001 and co-sponsored by the State University of New York at Oneonta and the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum. Featuring keynote remarks from George Plimpton author of Home Run: The Best Writing About Baseball's Most Exciting Moment, this Symposium examined such topics as baseball's myths, legends, and tall tales. These essays, divided into sections titled Mythic Heroes, Media Mythology, Myth and Mystery, and Myths in Progress, go beyond the quick and easy judgments of the media and offer instead the longer, more informed views of scholars and researchers.

The Great Pete Penney Jean Bashor Tolle, 1979 An 11-year-old pitcher's unusual friendship with a tiny invisible man is responsible for her team's very memorable season.

Women's Baseball John M. Kovach, 2005 In 1866, just one year after the end of the Civil War, the first documented female baseball players took to the field at Vassar College. Those early pioneers paved the way for women who would play baseball as both amateurs and professionals up to the present day. Some were headlining stars on barnstorming teams, while others organized and operated their own teams, and from the 1890s through the 1930s they were known as Bloomer Girls due to the baggy pants created by Amelia Bloomer. In 1988, the American Women's Baseball Association began play in the Chicago area. With play starting in 1990, the Washington DC Metropolitan Women's Baseball League is now the oldest operating women's amateur baseball league in the country. In 2001, a true baseball World Series was held in Toronto, Canada, with women's baseball teams from the United States, Canada, Japan, and Australia. That event will celebrate its fifth season in 2005.

Eclipse David Dane Wallace, 2014-05 Cameron Mills was an American Icon. He had it all: a family with money, a beautiful girl friend, and a talent for Martial Arts that most legends could only dream of. He was world renowned, idolized, and feared by his enemies. He was a monarch, and someone that the masses respected until one day that all changed with the stroke of a knife. Now Cameron Pony Boy Mills has been charged with the murder of his girl friend and another man whose lives were taken by a shadowy figure that is thought to be him. People loved him, idolized him, and respected him. He was revered and now, amidst a media storm and the friendship of a famous mobster, he has become known as The Anti Hero. There are no more hugs and adoring fans, no more people begging for autographs, and a world that once loved him wants to see him receive the death penalty in Brighton, California's lethal injection chamber.

Morse, 2016-05-22 Do you know the Ten Commandments well enough to get you out of a tricky spot? What if you had food containers that never emptied? Can you imagine walking on water? See how these things and others empowered four siblings Stan Peter Joe and Penney as they travel through a parallel dimension to rescue their father. They use their knowledge of God and common Bible stories to guide them through a strange yet familiar land. As bad events happen they try to find God and the strength to go forward. Will their beliefs stand against the many challenges? Is their family bond strong enough to keep them together? Can their faith and love bring home a lost soul? Sport Fishery Abstracts, 1974 A Year Book and

Davies, 2017-10-18 John Holt 1841-1915 was a successful British merchant who made several voyages to West Africa during his lifetime to establish business and trade in the era of British Imperialism. His diaries are presented in two accounts: the first from 1862-1872 documents his life as a merchant on the West African island of Fernando Po, initially working for James Lynslager and eventually purchasing the trade company and expanding it significantly. Holt's own vessel Maria and his affiliation with the African Steam Ship Company made his maritime trade activities particularly successful. The second account records his voyage in the Maria from Liverpool to Fernando Po in 1869-1872 and documents his trade relationships across West Africa. The volume is rounded out by diary entries from the ten-day voyage of the Peep o' Day along the Krou coast and concludes with John Holt's family tree. This volume presents a comprehensive account of Holt's life as a means of preserving history and adding to the field of study of mercantile livelihoods and shipping trade industries under British imperialism. It also seeks to celebrate the individual accomplishments made in John Holt's career. Merchant Vessels of the United
