The Great School Bus Controversy Nicolaus Mills, 1973-01-01 Historical Dictionary of School Segregation and Desegregation Jeffrey Raffel, 1998-10-15 Throughout the nation's history from before the Civil War through Reconstruction across the years of lynchings and segregation to the Brown v Board of Education decision and the battles over busing no issue has divided the American people more than race and at the heart of the race issue has been the conflict over school segregation and desegregation Prior to the Civil War South Carolina enacted the first compulsory illiteracy law which made it a crime to teach slaves to write and other Southern states soon followed South Carolina's example After the Civil War schools for blacks were founded throughout the South including many Historically Black Colleges and Universities The 1896 Plessy v Ferguson Supreme Court decision established the principle of separate but equal education which led to decades of segregation With the 1954 Brown decision the Supreme Court overturned the separate but equal principle and the Civil Rights Act of 1964 empowered the federal government to affect school desegregation The process of desegregation continues to this day with much debate and mixed results Through more than 260 alphabetically arranged entries this comprehensive reference book describes persons court decisions terms and concepts legislation reports and books types of plans and organizations central to the struggle for educational equality The volume covers topics ranging from emotionally laden terms such as busing to complex legal concepts such as de facto and de jure segregation Each entry includes factual information a summary of different viewpoints and a brief bibliography The book includes an introduction which outlines the history of school segregation and desegregation along with a chronology and extensive bibliographic material Thus this reference is a complete guide to school segregation and desegregation in elementary secondary and higher education in the United States

Smith, Randall Williams, Steve Hoffius, Marcia Kunstel, Pat Stevens, Frank Kunstel, Charles Hardy, Mark Pinsky, Linda Williams, David Nevin, Robert Bills, Pamela George, Meyer Weinberg, Leon Hall, James Lyons, Kenneth Clark, Hayes Mizell, Before it was over they fired him from the little schoolhouse at which he had taught devotedly for ten years And they fired his wife and two of his sisters and a niece And they threatened him with bodily harm And they sued him on trumped up charges and convicted him in a kangaroo court and left him with a judgment that denied him credit from any bank And they burned his house to the ground while the fire department stood around watching the flames consume the night And they stoned the church at which he pastored And fired shotguns at him out of the dark But he was not Job and so he fired back and called the police who did not come and kept not coming Then he fled driving north at eighty five miles an hour over country roads until he was across the state line Soon after they burned his church to the ground and charged him for having shot back that night with felonious assault with a deadly weapon and so he became an

proponents highlighted the web of state sponsored discrimination that produced interrelated school and residential segregation reveals the strategic creativity of civil rights activists He shows us how even in the face of concerted white opposition these activists continued to advance civil rights reforms into the 1970s secured one of the most progressive busing remedies in the nation and created a potential model for desegregation efforts across the United States Between North and South also explores how activists on both sides of the contest in this border state adjacent to the Mason Dixon line helped create perpetuate and contest ideas of southern exceptionalism and northern innocence Gadsden offers instead a new framework in which southern style and northern style modes of racial segregation and discrimination are revealed largely as regional myths that civil rights activists and opponents alternately evoked and strategically deployed to both advance and thwart reform
