The Man Behind the Book Louis Auchincloss, 2021-05-12 Twenty three biographical essays on writers admired by the National Medal of Arts winning author of The Education of Oscar Fairfax For Louis Auchincloss life and letters are not two things but one It therefore comes as no surprise that when he writes about writers their lives are considered as closely as their works He takes what today is a refreshingly unpopular position that the artist and his art cannot be teased apart that biography of criticism and criticism biography For Mr Auchincloss it all boils down to that maxim of Buffon s the style s the man the man behind the book The twenty three writers discussed here are a mixed lot English American and French novelists poets and playwrights Jacobean Victorians and moderns yet each has meant a great deal to Mr Auchincloss as a reader and a writer Some of them are classics and familiar Auchincloss subjects Sarah Orne Jewett Henry James Ivy Compton Burnett Others among them Prosper Merimee Harold Frederic and Amy Lowell were famous once but are now obscure In their cases it is Mr Auchincloss s self described task to explore the reasons for their fall from grace reasons that prove to be unfailingly personal as well as artistic

But as Mr Auchincloss would rather praise and share than damn and dismiss it is also his task to seek the portions of their work that may still merit attention Alfred Kazin once noted that Mr Auchincloss's essays are marked by perfect literary grace and wit These qualities have never been so evident as in this volume an informal study of some of the author's favorite books and the fascinating artists behind them
