

A large, dark rock formation stands prominently in the foreground, its jagged edges and textures highlighted by the low light. The background features a vast, calm body of water reflecting the vibrant colors of a sunset or sunrise. The sky is a mix of deep purples, pinks, and oranges, with wispy clouds catching the light. The overall mood is contemplative and majestic.

No man is justified in doing evil on the ground of expedience.

The Ground Of Evil Doing:

The Future of the Holocaust Berel Lang, 2018-09-05 In The Future of the Holocaust Berel Lang continues his inquiry into the causal mechanisms of decision making and conduct in Nazi Germany and into responses to the genocide by individuals and nations an inquiry that he began in Act and Idea in the Nazi Genocide and pursued in Heidegger's Silence Raising the question now of what the future of the Holocaust is he addresses among other topics how history and memory together shape views of the Holocaust how the concept of intention which played a crucial part in the events of half a century ago shapes history and memory themselves and how future views of this genocide may alter those of today In addition Lang explores cultural representations of the Final Solution from monuments to public school curricula within the Jewish and German communities He analyzes ethical issues concerning such concepts as intention responsibility forgiveness and revenge and puts forward a theory of the history of evil which provides a context for the Holocaust both historically and morally Addressing the claims that the Nazi genocide was unique Lang argues that the Holocaust is at once an actual series of events and a still future possibility If the Holocaust occurred once he argues it can occur twice and this view of the future remains an unavoidable premise for anyone now writing or thinking about that event in the past

Judgment According to Works in Romans Kevin W. McFadden,2013-10-01 Kevin W McFadden shows that Paul wrote the letter to remind Roman Christians of his gospel because of his vocation as apostle to the Gentiles The letter simultaneously demonstrates the guilt of the world and calls Paul's audience to live out the implications of the gospel The theme of judgment thus appears in two distinct ways Paul opposes justification by works of law but simultaneously affirms as did most of the early Christian movement McFadden argues a final judgment according to works These are not contradictory observations but belong together in a cohesive understanding of Paul's theology and of his purpose in the letter
