The Growth and Influence, of Classical Greek Poetry R. C. Jebb, 2015-07-03 Excerpt from The Growth and Influence of Classical Greek Poetry Lectures Delivered in 1892 on the Percy Turnbull Memorial Foundation in the Johns Hopkins University The Percy Turnbull Memorial Lectureship of Poetry was established in the Johns Hopkins University Baltimore in 1889 by Mr and Mrs Lawrence Turnbull in memory of their son Percy Graeme Turnbull The first course was given 1891 by Mr Edmund Clarence Stedman on The Nature and Elements of Poetry and was followed in 1892 by the course contained in this volume The lectures are printed as they were delivered with the exception of a few very slight changes Their aim is to exhibit concisely but clearly the leading characteristics of the best classical Greek poets and to illustrate the place of ancient Greece in the general history of poetry I should like the book to be considered as a member of a series to which other volumes by other writers will doubtless in due course be added a series deriving unity from the Turnbull foundation and associated with the University whose place among elder sisters is already one of such peculiar distinction About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
