The Sinking of the Titanic and Great Sea Disasters Logan Marshall, 2009 The Titanic, greatest of ships, has gone to her ocean grave. What has she left behind her? Think clearly. She has left debts. Vast sums of money have been lost. Some of them are covered by insurance which will be paid. The rest is gone. All wealth is insecure. She has left lessons. The risk of running the northern course when it is menaced by icebergs is revealed. The cruelty of sending a ship to sea without enough life boats and life rafts to hold her company is exhibited and underlined in black. She has left sorrows. Hundreds of human hearts and homes are in mourning for the loss of dear companions and friends. The universal sympathy which is written in every face and heard in every voice proves that man is more than the beasts that

Subjectivism and Interpretative Methodology in Theory and Practice Fu-Lai Tony Yu, 2020-02-15 Contemporary social science in general and economics in particular are dominated by the method of logical positivism in the British tradition In contrast to the British philosophy Subjectivism and Interpretative Methodology in Theory and Practice adopts subjectivism and interpretation methodology to understand human behavior and social action Unlike positivism this subjectivist approach with its root in German idealism takes human experience as the sole foundation of factual knowledge All objective facts have to be interpreted and evaluated by human minds In this approach experience knowledge expectation plans errors and revision of plans are key elements Specifically this volume uses the subjectivist approach originated in Max Weber s interpretation method Alfred Schutz s phenomenology and Peter Berger and Thomas Luckmann s sociology of knowledge to understand economic and social phenomena The method brings human agency back into the forefront of analysis adding new insights not only in economics and management but also in sociology politics psychology and organizational behavior Lifeboat Maggie
