Statesman of Europe T. G. Otte,2020-11-26 The lamps are going out all over Europe We shall not see them lit again in our life time The words of Sir Edward Grey looking out from the windows of the Foreign Office at the end of August 1914 are amongst the most famous in European history and encapsulate the impending end of the nineteenth century world The man who spoke them was Britain s longest ever serving Foreign Secretary in a single span of office and one of the great figures of late Victorian and Edwardian Britain Statesman of Europe describes the three decades before the First World War through the prism of his biography which is based almost entirely on archival sources and presents a detailed account of the main domestic and international events and of the main personalities of the era In particular it presents a fresh understanding of the approach to war in the years and months before its outbreak and Grey s role in the unfolding of events Yet Grey s life was not all public affairs momentous as those were He disliked being in London much preferring country life at Fallodon his family estate in Northumberland and displayed none of the ambition of his contemporaries or successors He attended assiduously to his duties as director of the Great North Eastern Railway one of the transformative enterprises in industry and communications of the period and wanted to spend as much time as he could fishing Apart from his memoirs the only book he wrote was called The Charm of Birds This hinterland gave quality to his judgements and made his character attractive to his contemporaries This important book is the definitive biography of one of the pivotal figures in European diplomacy and a magnificent portrait of an age Grey of Fallodon. Being the Life of Sir Edward Grey, Afterwards Viscount Grey of Fallodon, Etc. [With Plates, Including Portraits.] George Macaulay TREVELYAN (O.M.),Edward Grey Grey of Fallodon (Viscount),1937 Encyclopedia of the Age of Imperialism, 1800-1914 Carl C. Hodge,2007-11-30 In 1800 Europeans governed about one third of the world s land surface by the start of World War I in 1914 Europeans had imposed some form of political or economic ascendancy on over 80 percent of the globe The basic structure of global and European politics in the twentieth century was fashioned in the previous century out of the clash of competing imperial interests and the effects both beneficial and harmful of the imperial powers on the societies they dominated This encyclopedia offers current detailed information on the major world powers and their global empires as well as on the people events ideas and movements both European and non European that shaped the Age of Imperialism Sir Edward Grey, K.G. [A Biography.] Edward Grey Grey of Fallodon (Viscount),1915 Grey of Fallodon being the life of Sir Edward Grey afterwards Viscount Grey of Fallodon George Macaulay Trevelyan,1948 The Anglo-Japanese Alliance, 1902-1922 Phillips O'Brien,2003-12-25 This book brings together many leading experts who examine the different aspects of the Alliance in its different stages before during and after the First World War who explore the reasons for its success and for its end Anglo-French Relations in the Twentieth Century Alan Sharp, Glyn Stone, Professor Glyn A Stone, 2002-03-11 Anglo French Relations in the Twentieth Century is a collection of studies on the key episodes of the difficult and often discordant Anglo French exchange over the past century The authors critically re evaluate the role of Spain in Anglo French relations up to 1918 the missed opportunity of the 1920s with the failure of France and Britain to find sufficient common ground and co operation the short lived Anglo French alliance and the Second World War the degree of Anglo French Imperial co operation the Suez Crisis British and French policies on European Integration Esme Howard B. J. C. McKercher, 2006-03-30 This well informed and readable biography of a hitherto neglected figure examines Howard s career The 20th Century Go-N Frank N. Magill, 2014-03-05 Each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains 250 entries on the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history This is not a who s who Instead each entry provides an in depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual s life and achievements The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual s place in history All entries conclude with a fully annotated bibliography Origins of the First World War Gordon Martel, 2016-10-04 Origins of the First World War summarizes the policies issues and crises that brought Europe to war in 1914 Examining the strategic and political problems that confronted each of the great powers and the way in which social and economic factors influenced the decision making process Martel discusses the position of each power and their place in the system of alliances which dominated international politics The fourth edition has been revised and updated throughout to incorporate the body of new scholarship that has appeared since the hundredth anniversary of the outbreak of war In a clear and accessible manner it explains how and why the alliance system was created how alliances led to a network of complicated strategic commitments how an escalating series of international crises from the turn of the century fuelled preparations for war why the peculiarities of the Balkan situation are essential in understanding the outbreak of war in 1914 This book also includes an updated Guide to Further Reading Who s Who of important figures and Glossary of key terms and the selection of documents has been expanded to include the key treaties as well as evidence of popular militarism and nationalism Concise accessible and analytical it is essential introductory reading for all students interested in the origins of the First World War World War I Spencer C.
